RESOLUTION PASSED FOR CONDEMNATION OF GERMAN ACTION

Denmark Only Member of League's Council to Refrain From Voting in Assent—Canada Member of Sanctions Committee to Devise Measures Against Future Treaty Violators

GENEVA, April 17 (CP).—One of the most momentous sessions the council of the League of Nations has ever held came to an end tonight, after condemnation of Germany's rearmament and steps to prevent any such unilateral repudiation of international treaties in the future.

With Great Britain, France and Italy acting throughout in the closest solidarity, the extraordinary session of the council passed the joint resolution submitted by French Foreign Minister Pierre Laval. Without further delay the council in private session appointed a committee which is to draw up measures for financial and economic sanctions against future treaty violators, as provided for in the resolution.

CANADA APPOINTED

Canada was appointed to the committee charged with strengthening the League covenant, which at present provides only for sanctions against an actual aggressor. Canada is now in the council, which voted unanimously, with the exception of Denmark, which abstained, in favor of today's resolution, but the sanctions committee is not limited to council members. The committee appointees will have to be confirmed by their respective Governments, after which the committee will convene here and get to work, probably in May.

The council stands adjourned until May 20, when Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet Foreign Commissioner, will be present. Its last act on the French appeal against the German treaty violation, through the decree of

IN AGREEMENT AS TO TREATY

France and Soviet Decide On Pact to Reinforce League's Covenant

GENEVA, April 17 (CP-Havas).—Agreement has been reached on the general terms of the proposed Franco-Soviet treaty reinforcing the League of Nations Covenant's provisions for action against an aggressor. French Foreign Minister Pierre Laval and Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet Union Commissioner for Foreign Affairs, announced after a conference tonight.

The final texts will be drawn up by their respective Governments, and it is expected they will be signed when Laval goes to Moscow this month. He will report to the cabinet in Paris on his conversations with Litvinoff on Friday, and the final decision will be made by the cabinet.

The treaty is designed to minimize delays in obtaining action by the League in case of aggression by one nation against another.

CEMENTING SECURITY

MO'CO'W, April 17 (CP-Havas).—The Soviet Union tonight turned to the all-important cementing of security between its frontiers.

Pierre Laval, French Foreign Minister, is due here for that purpose during the next few days. Later Eduard Benes, Czechoslovakian Foreign Minister, likewise will confer with Soviet officials. The long-discussed series of mutual assistance alliances will get under way, aimed to weld a network of open alliances that will minimize the threat of war.

NATIONAL GOV'T

WINS IN PERTH

F. Norie Miller, Liberal, Defeats Labor Candidate in By-Election By Large Majority

PERTH, Scotland, April 17 (CP).—The National Government retained the Perth riding in yesterday's by-election, it was announced today, with the election of a National Liberal in place of the former Conservative member.

The result was as follows: F. Norie Miller, National Liberal, 17,818; Adam McKinley, Labor, 7,984. Since the general election, when he was defeated, Mr. Norie Miller, who is seventy-five years of age, has become a supporter of the National Government.

Huge Tiger Shark Captured at Hawaii

A frontal view of the fifteen-foot tiger shark caught off Barber's Point, Hawaii, recently by Japanese fishermen. It weighed one and one-half tons. It was landed after a half-hour battle and brought to Kewalo Basin. During the struggle, the huge sea beast attacked and swallowed a baby shark that was caught on one of the hooks.

Blue Ribbons Enter Dominion Final by Defeating Winnipeg

Local Hoopsters Trough Toilers in Second Game To End Series

MARTIN IS HIGH SCORER FOR LOCALS

Victoria Blue Ribbons, 1932 Canadian basketball champions, continued their successful campaign tonight by defeating the Dominion title holders in the Main Building in the Willows exhibition grounds, when they snatched the visiting Winnipeg Toilers under a 61-33 defeat in the second and deciding game of the Western Canada play-downs. In the initial fixture played Monday evening the smooth-functioning Capital City quintette trounced the Winnipeggers, 52-23.

After hurling the Toilers with comparative ease, the Ribbons will keep in shape for the Canadian finals against Assumption College of Windsor, Eastern Canada titlists, here Tuesday.

Ribbons played smart ball against a smaller and inferior band of hoopsters.

Gives Birth To Triplets At Seventeen

LOS ANGELES, April 17 (AP).—Seventeen-year-old Mrs. Estelle Carranza gave birth today to triplets—two girls and a boy—in what doctors believe to be an extremely rare case for so young a mother.

At the county jail, Joseph Carranza, father of the triplets, is serving 180 days for disturbing the peace.

Mayor of Edmonton May Be Haled Before Bar of Alberta House

EDMONTON, April 17 (CP).—Mayor J. A. Clarke, of Edmonton, stood in danger tonight of being the first man in the history of Alberta to be haled before the bar of the Legislature. Standing up in his place in the public gallery this afternoon he shouted "You're a liar" at O. L. McPherson, U.F.A. member for Little Bow, former Minister of Public Works. An orderly escorted him to the door of the Chamber, and there the mayor turned, shook a finger and shouted: "He's a liar and he knows it."

Mr. McPherson brought on the outburst when, in telling the House of his own physical attack, Monday, on C. E. Campbell, publisher of the Edmonton Bulletin, at the door of the Legislative Chamber. He declared that a Liberal "council of war" had been held a short time after the incident and that among those present was "Fighting Joe" Clarke.

Dominion Government to Spend $1,000,000 to Send One Hundred Geologists on Surveys in Dominion—Beneficial Results Predicted by Premier Pattullo and Hon. G. S. Pearson

COMMENTING on the Ottawa report that the Dominion Government contemplated spending $1,000,000 to send geologists to make surveys of the various mineral areas of Canada this year, Premier T. D. Pattullo pointed out that the British Columbia Government had already made representations to the Federal authorities along that line for this Province and had suggested a substantial increase in the vote for geological surveys in this area this year.

Hundreds of prospectors, stated the Premier, would be materially aided and the development of mineral areas would be much accelerated if geological survey work were expanded in the hitherto unexplored sections of the province.

ISSUES STATEMENT

Hon. George S. Pearson, Minister of Mines, issued the following statement in connection with press reports from Ottawa dealing with the matter:

"If the proposal is to undertake geological mapping, say of the area north of the Canadian National Railway, of which little is known, it is a step in the right direction."

SIXTEEN OFFICERS WOUNDED IN RIOTS AT CORBIN STRIKE

Daylight Saving Will Be Voted on At Next Election

ALDERMAN Archie Wills, who fostered the daylight saving (1933) by-law, defeated on a split vote by the City Council on April 8, was heard from again during the meeting yesterday afternoon. He proposed that voters should be asked "Are you in favor of daylight saving during Summer months?" when the annual municipal elections are held here in December. The council supported this proposal. Mayor Leeming intimated that daylight saving would not come before the public until then.

FIVE DEAD IN TRAIN WRECK

Engine and Four Cars of C.N.R. Express Plunge Into Swamp

HEATHERTON, N.S., April 17 (CP).—Over the bodies of four men a coroner's jury sat tonight, while searchers engaged in a grim hunt for the body of a fifth man known to have died, when part of a Canadian National Railway express plunged suddenly off the rails near here and rocketed off into a swamp. Fifty feet from the tracks the huge locomotive lay half-trunked in the bog, and underneath it the searchers expected to find Fireman Charles McDonald, dead. His companion in the cab, Engineer Lawrence McIntosh, died at the throttle a few minutes after the engine jumped the rails with four cars on a downgrade.

TRANSIENTS KILLED

Three men riding the "blind baggage" just behind the tender were the other victims. John Duncan McDonald was found dead just after the wreck; his cousin, John Angus McDonald, died in hospital at Antigonish of a fractured skull a few hours later, and not long after he died, railway workers extricated the body of Edward Hohendorf, Montana-born resident of North Sydney, another transient.

Of the fifty passengers aboard the Westbound express when it whipped off the rails into the darkness early this morning, only three were injured, none of them seriously.

HAD PRESENTIMENT

NORTH SYDNEY, N.S., April 17 (CP).—"I suppose this way of traveling will get me one of these days," Edward Hohendorf observed to a group of friends as he swung aboard the tender of the Westbound express from Sydney last night. Today his body was taken from the wreckage of the train in a bog at Heatherston, N.S.

Wedding Presents Are Rather Late

DILLON, Mont., April 17 (AP).—A trunk full of wedding gifts has been located by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schenberger nineteen years after their marriage. The trunk, lost in shipment to Butte, Mont., from Wisconsin, Mont., was found in the hayloft of a livery stable here.

Giant Plane Lands At Honolulu After Easy Ocean Flight

First Test of Flying Boat on Preliminary Commercial Service Proves Uneventful—Machine to Fly Back to California Next Week

HONOLULU, April 17 (AP).—Preliminary commercial air service between the American mainland and Hawaii was inaugurated today when the huge flying boat Pan-American Clipper alighted here to complete a swift, sure flight from Alameda, Calif. The big plane went through her schedule like a limited train through a time table. Her flight marked the beginning of a new era in American aviation—regular service all the way across the Pacific—to be established this Summer.

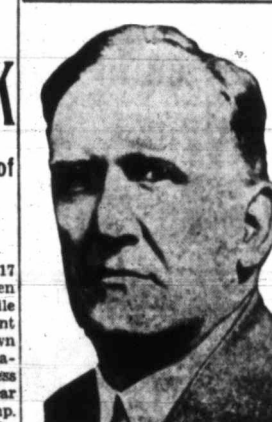

She logged exactly seven hours of the previous record and had to slow down occasionally and even leave her course to make her time 17 hours 45 minutes for the 2,400-mile all-water route.

Four Constables Well Known in Victoria Among Those Who Are Hurt—Men Hurrying to Support Strikers From Blairmore, Alta., While More Police Are Sent From Vancouver

FOLLOWING a serious clash between striking colliery workers and Provincial Police at Corbin, B.C., yesterday reinforcements for the constabulary were being hurried last night from Vancouver to the Kootenay mining camp, while over the road from Blairmore, Alberta, several hundred miners were hastening to support the strikers. Twenty men under Constable T. King entrained from Vancouver to replace sixteen officers wounded in the riots which broke out when an attempt was made to reopen the mines. In addition to the injured policemen, five colliery workers and a score of strikers were reported to have been wounded in the hand-to-hand fighting of yesterday.

Announces Extensive Search for Gold

HON. WESLEY GORDON

MINISTER of Mines, announced yesterday in the House of Commons that $1,000,000 of the public works appropriations would be devoted to geological survey by 180 parties this Summer. Twenty parties will work in British Columbia.

ARE CONVICTED BUT EXEMPTED

American Spies Gain Freedom by Helping Track Down Co-Workers

(Copyright, 1935, by the Associated Press) PARIS, April 17.—Evidence they gave against co-conspirators in an asserted far-flung Soviet spy ring today won freedom for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon Switz, Americans, after sixteen months in French prisons on espionage charges.

The spy plot was described as the largest uncovered in France since Great War days.

A court trying the East Orange, N.J., couple and twenty-seven others for the last month recognized the Switzes' guilt, but decreed they be "exempted from punishment" for the help they gave France in tracking down the spy ring's members.

Heavy sentences were dealt out to twenty-three other defendants pronounced guilty.

Thirteen men and women in court got ten months to five years in prison, their sentences totaling forty-four years and ten months. Ten missing defendants were sentenced in Absentia to five years each, totaling fifty years. Fines amounting to $2,300 francs (about $350) were assessed against seventeen. Four were acquitted.

VIOLENCE GROWS IN SHIP STRIKE

Seamen Blamed for Attempt to Burn Portland Service Station—Gasoline Pumps Damaged

PORTLAND, April 17 (AP).—An attempt to burn a Standard Oil Company service station here tonight climaxed a series of property damage assaults linked by police with the strike of Coast members of the International Seamen's Union.

Two seamen were at liberty here tonight under $2,500 bonds, charged with inciting riot in connection with a service station bombing and wrecking early Tuesday of a restaurant where oil company employees ate.

Damage to pumps and other equipment at two more service stations was reported today.

The trouble started at the Corbin Coal Mines, Ltd., after Tom Uphill, M.P.P., and Dominion Fair Wage Officer F. H. Harrison had almost succeeded in composing the differences between the men and the company. An attempt was made to move coal, and the crowd of several hundred striking miners rushed the workers. Police interfered and a desperate fight ensued. The police did not draw their revolvers, but sought to protect the smaller body and prevent a breach of the peace. This drew the attack of the enraged strikers, and the police, under Inspector McDonald, replied with a baton charge. Egged

FEELING FIT TO FINISH HIS JOB

Prime Minister R. B. Bennett Expresses Gratitude on Eve of Departure

OTTAWA, April 17 (CP).—In a statement issued on the eve of his departure for England, Prime Minister R. B. Bennett said tonight that he expects to return in good health to join "in completing the legislation which was undertaken at the commencement of this session." He added that so long as he was spared in health and vigor it would be his "proud privilege" to continue to render service to his country.

The text of the statement follows: "I am grateful for this opportunity to thank the press of Canada for the kindly interest they have shown in my welfare, and, through them, to express my sincerest gratitude to my fellow citizens for their messages of sympathy and goodwill."

IN LOYAL DEVOTION

"I leave tomorrow for London to represent Canada at the Silver Jubilee celebrations. This is an occasion where we shall join with all citizens of this great Empire in loyal devotion to the Crown and in thanksgiving to God that Their Majesties have been spared to serve their people through a quarter of a century that has probably witnessed more far-reaching changes than any comparable period in history."

"Through difficult years, Canada has done well. But there are mighty tasks before us which will test the capacity of the Canadian people to put service of country before private or selfish ends."

TO COMPLETE TASK

"I expect to return to Canada in good health, to join with my colleagues in completing the legislation which was undertaken at the commencement of this session. I am grateful to the Almighty that I have been able, through these difficult years to render some service to my country, and so long as I am spared in health and vigor it will be my privilege to continue to do so."

Tourist Trade Is Discussed as Big Business Resource

Saanich Board of Trade Hears of Value of Development as Means of Creating New Wealth—Reeve Crouch Stresses Value of Returns

SAANICH producers of agricultural products and business men would benefit personally by the expansion of the tourist trade they were told at a large and enthusiastic meeting held last night at Brentwood, under the auspices of the Saanich Board of Trade. Different phases of this modern "big business" were explained during the evening by different speakers, who examined the possibilities of development in a straight-forward business-like way.

Reeve William Crouch struck the keynote of the evening when he declared that there was no other industry that would give such returns upon small investment. He especially stressed the manifold advantages of the municipality to attract visitors. Its scenic, climatic and recreational assets were such as would prove attractive to holiday-makers. He especially mentioned the wonderful panorama that was to be obtained from the top of Mount Tolmie, declaring that it was money. They went where they could best enjoy themselves; where conditions were made attractive to them. Those communities that organized to obtain that trade had a gold mine at their doors. He instanced the returns obtained from different tourist centres, and amplified the argument of Reeve Crouch that the volume of tourist traffic was reflected in the amount of employment given in those industries and calling that catered to visitors. He told of the need for unity of action in securing facilities that were essential to the development of a large trade, and stressed the need for improved highways on Vancouver Island.

The address of the Mayor was followed by the showing of some exceptionally fine motion pictures of Victoria and Vancouver Island, the entertainment being provided through the courtesy of the publicity bureau.

HELP TAXPAYERS

Following the interlude T. H. Eslick, general secretary of the Tourist Trade Development Association of Victoria and Vancouver Island, spoke of the great possibilities of the Island as a holiday land. He declared that properly supported the tourist appeal could not help but bring prosperity. It was of especial interest to farmers to enlarge their readily available markets; it was a movement of new wealth that would bring relief to taxpayers. It was a sound business proposition to organize to obtain a share of the millions of money spent annually by tourists. He briefly outlined the work of the association.

WORTH SUPPORTING

Norman Whittaker, M.P.P., warmly congratulated Mayor Leeming on his initiative in starting the drive to bring back prosperity. The value of the tourist to nations as well as to communities was apparent, he said, and he cited the manner in which France had suffered through the decline in American travel to that country. Mr. Whittaker reiterated the well-reasoned argument that he had advanced in the Legislature when he declared that the Government should take an energetic part in developing tourist trade. He believed it would be sound economy for the Government to set up a tourist council composed of private citizens to advise upon the development of such an attractive source of new wealth. He believed that every citizen should get behind the movement and support it strongly.

Varied Complaints Voiced at Inquiry Into Relief Camps

Commission Told of Food Supplies Being Unfit for Consumption and of Inexperienced First Aid Men Imperilling Those Stricken

VANCOUVER, April 17 (CP).—The Royal Commission investigating relief camp conditions in British Columbia was told today that food supplies unfit for human consumption were served in some camps and that in others ignorant and inexperienced first-aid men imperilled men coming

A thirty-year-old witness and former storeman in a camp, declared that a year ago the Boston Bar supply centre issued a large quantity of rotten vegetables to camps in that area and that, although some of it was officially "written off," much had to be used. He said that Col. Greer, of Victoria, had inspected a quantity of "doubtful" vegetables stored at the supply base, and had urged that "as much as possible" should be destroyed. In some instances, the witness added, as much as 60 per cent was rotten.

MEN IMPERILED

In camps comprising a hundred or more men he said he knew of several cases where first aid men had qualified for their positions by attending not more than six lectures, and instances where men coming under their inexperienced care were imperilled.

Another witness told the commission that he had lost the sight of an eye while cutting wood in a Fraser Canyon camp, and after six days in a hospital was sent back to camp where he remained without medical attention for a month. It was two months before he got attention from a Vancouver specialist.

TELLS OF ILLNESS

A young witness from Princeton said he had been taken ill in a camp in that area. The first aid man was away, he said, and the foreman gave him some "Number Nine" pills. When the doctor examined him he had a ruptured appendix. He said he was in hospital thirty-three days and had to convalesce in a "barn of a place" at the Princeton airport, sleeping on dirty blankets.

Other witnesses complained of mail addressed to them in camps being tampered with, particularly packages containing labor literature. Commissioners took note of the instances and promised the fullest investigation.

At the opening of the session, the chairman referred to the attack heard yesterday on the propriety of Charles T. McHattie sitting as a member of the commission. He paid a tribute to Mr. McHattie, and added that no remuneration had been set, none received, and none asked for, by Mr. McHattie.

MAKES MANY CHARGES

A young man who said he was one of eighty-eight men being given relief in Vancouver, indicted the authorities in charge of the camps for mal-administration, misuse of public funds and contributing to juvenile delinquency.

He told of the strike at the Rock Creek Airport camp on the Kettle Valley Line. He said men had won their demands at this camp and had been promised they would not be discriminated against. Shortly afterwards, he was discharged from camp.

Witness asserted conditions were terrible at Rock Creek. The men lived in tents without sufficient blankets, meagre washing facilities, and in blankets which were never washed. Camp authorities did not supply stoves, and had tried to make men work in their own clothing.

Telling of his part in a strike at an Agassiz camp, he said he had been jailed because he led the men into the dining-room after a foreman had refused them breakfast.

He charged degeneracy was common in the Rock Creek camp and other camps. He added that a man suffering from a filthy disease had been allowed to enter camp from Vernon and had been kept there for some time. His condition became pitiable before he was removed.

Summer Boarder—What a beautiful view that is.

Farmer—Maybe. But if you had to plough that view, harrow it.

A. Weatherill Is Elected Head of Veterans' Group

A. Weatherill was last night elected chairman of the 88th Battalion Veterans' Association at its organization meeting held in the Britannia Branch, Canadian Legion, View Street.

A. B. Morkill was named vice-chairman; R. Sneddon, secretary-treasurer; E. W. Maynard, finance committee chairman; T. B. Dempster, refreshment committee chairman; George Turner, dinner and ticket committee chairman; David Sheret, entertainment chairman, and Thomas Jones, publicity chairman.

It was decided to hold a dinner on May 23 marking the nineteenth anniversary of the battalion's departure for overseas. Times and place will be announced later.

DEATH SUMMONS HERBERT G. BOLT

Resident of Victoria for Twenty-Three Years Passes at Family Home Here

Herbert George Bolt, a resident of Victoria for the last twenty-three years, passed away at the family home, 303 Michigan Street, yesterday morning, at the age of fifty-seven years.

Mr. Bolt had been an employee of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company for a number of years. He was a veteran of the Great War and a member of No. 6 Company of Fourandex, of Canada. He was actively associated with lawn bowling and alley bowling and took a general interest in athletics. He was born in England.

Mr. Bolt is survived by his widow; one daughter, Miss Helen; at home; a daughter, Mrs. J. Hanbury, also residing in Victoria, and one grandson, Mrs. Clark Standish, Calgary, is a sister.

The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the chapel of Sands Mortuary, Ltd., Rev. P. L. Stephenson will officiate, and interment will be made in Colwood Burial Park.

CARAVAN TO LEAVE HERE ON APRIL 27

Strong Contingent Will Go From Victoria and Island Points to Nanaimo

TO PROVIDE TENTS FOR MANY CYCLISTS

Arrangements for the big tourist trade rally to be held in Nanaimo on April 27 are now well advanced, and when the caravan from all parts of the Island arrives in Nanaimo, there should be at least 2,000 delegates.

The Victoria caravan will leave the City Hall at 8 a.m., headed by Mayor David Leeming and officers of the executive committee of the Tourist Trade Development Association. Accompanying the caravan will be the Gish Temple Shrine Band in uniform.

A stop will be made at 10 a.m. at Cobble Hill where the band will play, while the Cobble Hill delegation takes up its position in the caravan. Other stops include Duncan, 11 a.m.; Chemainus, 11:45 a.m.; Ladysmith, 12:10 p.m., and Nanaimo 1:10 p.m.

TO JOIN CARAVAN

At each of the stopping points, delegations from the various districts will join the northbound train of cars and special buses. A similar caravan will travel south from points north of Nanaimo. Each district will be led by civic or municipal representatives, and carry banners signifying the communities they represent.

Mrs. Hollingsworth, leader of the Boy Scouts in Nanaimo, has arranged tent accommodation for the bicycle caravan which will start from Victoria forty strong. It is expected that there will be 100 cyclists in the caravan before it reaches Nanaimo as similar cyclists' organizations are being formed Up-Island.

Owing to the rally being held in Nanaimo on April 27, the campaign to raise $40,000 for the five-year tourist trade development plan has been postponed until April 29.

NEW MUSEUM IS FINAL AIM

Eventually British Columbia Museum Will Be Housed in New Building

While its actual construction must await funds, eventually the British Columbia Museum here will occupy a separate and more adequate building specially adapted to museum requirements, Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir, Provincial Secretary, indicated yesterday in the course of a brief reference to museum affairs. Dr. Weir referred appreciatively to the grant made last year by the Carnegie Corporation, of New York, towards natural history lectures and extension of biological work at the museum, and which made possible the excellent series of lectures recently concluded.

Inadequacy of the present museum building, he said, was recognized, and when funds permit, a new building will be constructed in Victoria as the home for the provincial institution.

On his coming trip East, Dr. Weir will go to New York to meet Carnegie officials on health and other matters, including the archives service at the University of British Columbia.

AUDIT SHOWS FINANCES IN GOOD SHAPE

City of Victoria Ends Year With Surplus of $25,269 In Treasury

COMPTROLLER GIVES OPTIMISTIC REPORT

Presaging steadily-improving financial conditions in the city, the annual report of D. A. Macdonald, municipal comptroller and treasurer, shows that Victoria finished the year 1934 with a net surplus of $25,269.56.

Cash on hand at December 31 was $54,649.91; unsold debentures, $342,000; claims against the Provincial Government re unemployment relief, $44,539.91; amount to be advanced by the Provincial Government, being the city's share of contributable unemployment relief expenditure, $94,500. This totals $535,689.82.

Against the sum there are bills payable: Bank of Montreal, $402,081.54; Bank of Montreal overdraft, $51,312.30; accounts payable, $37,805.01; 1935 taxes paid in 1934, $19,221.41, giving a total of $510,420.26. The balance left is $25,269.56.

SINKING FUND SURPLUS

The report of Lemay, Bolston, Holden & Co., who conducted a continuous audit of books and accounts during the year, lists a sinking fund surplus of $50,566.86 over the by-law requirements.

Sooke Lake water system showed a profit of $85,305.11, which is a considerable increase over 1933 revenue of $52,650.16.

Goldstream water system shows a loss of $17,051.69 after crediting frontage tax of $1,043.23 and charging estimated depreciation of $16,764. The loss in 1933 was $17,074.45.

LOCAL KIWANIS RAISE LARGE SUM

Applause Greets Report That $2,536.55 Obtained Through Sale of T.B. Seals

Kiwanians at luncheon Tuesday in the Empress Hotel enthusiastically applauded the report of the T.B. Seal Campaign committee, which showed that $2,536.55 had been distributed after expenses connected with the past year's drive had been deducted and 10 per cent of the gross receipts had been sent to Ottawa.

C. W. Pangman, who made the report, said a complete statement would be published within a few days.

For several years the Victoria Kiwanians Club has actively assisted in helping to combat tuberculosis in the province, and has received high praise from Provincial health authorities for its contributions.

Dr. A. L. Hoops, who has been identified with the medical service in Malaya and who is now making a tour of the world before retiring from his activities there, after having attained to the head of the service, spoke at the meeting on Malaya and the importance of Singapore.

Standard of Chief Guide Interesting

Much interest was shown in the Chief Guide's standard, which was unfurled at the parade ground last Saturday in connection with the grand rally and inspection of Girl Guides by Lady Baden-Powell.

The history of the origin of this dates back to about 1922, when some of the County Commissioners in England planned to make a standard for the Chief Guide. A small committee was formed for the purpose. Overseas, commissioners of provinces and states were asked for suggestions, and eventually the standard was worked out to embody the various emblems, composing the striking banner so much commented on last week.

The emblems are as follows: A large trefoil, in gold, on blue—the Guide emblem, symbolizing the three promises. A blue sea (symbolized in the blue background) with silver waves and dolphins, and three ships, typifying the trend of the Guide movement to all parts of the world. In the midst of the sea is the gold fish which the Chief Guide alone is entitled to wear.

The standard also shows red motto bands, red representing cheerfulness, with two mottoes, one on each side of the standard: "Be prepared" and "Ar nyd yw Pwyl yd yw" (the Powell motto, in Welsh, meaning "Where there is a Powell there is safety").

SYMBOLS OF TENTS

Between the motto bands is a space filled with green and white triangles. These are the symbols of the tents of the Guide camps and the outdoor activities of Guide life.

In heraldry women are not allowed a crest. But in the fly of the standard are two lions, the Baden and Powell crests, recalling the fact that the Scout leader, who has shown such a keen interest in Guides also, has been splendidly helped in his work by Lady Baden-Powell.

The Most Popular Name in the Grocery Business

Few people will question the fact that PIGGLY WIGGLY is the most popular name in the grocery business. True, there are chain groceries with more stores—but more size doesn't breed popularity. Among independents, PIGGLY WIGGLY alone covers 42 states, Canada, Alaska and the Hawaiian Islands! And everywhere PIGGLY WIGGLY means the same in quality of merchandise, ease of self-service, convenience, fair prices.

Yet PIGGLY WIGGLY stores are everywhere independently owned and operated—the first and still the strongest co-operative movement among grocers. Such popularity isn't an accident. PIGGLY WIGGLY has endeavored, prospered and grown only because in every community it has and does offer the public better service, fairer prices and greater shopping convenience.

CANADIAN WHEAT TO BE IN DEMAND

H. E. Sellers, Prominent Grain Official, Optimistic of Future Prices in Dominion

High grade Canadian wheat may look forward to enjoying an increased demand this Summer, as the Argentine crop is below the quality of last year, H. E. Sellers, Winnipeg, one of Canada's foremost grain men, said yesterday on arriving in Victoria. Accompanied by his wife, he plans to holiday at the Empress Hotel for ten days.

Mr. Sellers is president of the Federal Grain, Limited; The Alberta Pacific Grain Company, Limited; Melady, Sellers & Company, Limited; Northland Elevator Company, Limited; Atlas Flour Company, Limited; Pacific Terminal Elevator Company, Limited; Vancouver Terminal Company, Limited; Superior Feed Company and Prairie Cities Oil Company, Limited.

Last year he was president of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. He is also director of the Imperial Bank

CONDEMNING GERMANY

The Council of the League of Nations, by resolution, has condemned the action of Germany in violating the Treaty of Versailles by her policy of rearmament. The League, moreover, is appointing a committee to strengthen the provisions of its covenant and to decide on ways and means, both economic and otherwise, whereby future violation of treaty rights can be punished. There is to be no punishment, however, so far as Germany is concerned. Save for whatever effect the condemnatory resolution may have the League has done no more than it did in the case of Japan when Manchukuo was made a tutelary state. Germany will proceed with her policy of conscription. She is no longer a member of the League of Nations, and, like Japan, she will not be disciplined.

There is no suggestion arising out of the League Council's discussions that any effort will be made to revise the Treaty of Versailles. Seemingly it is to be allowed to break up piecemeal at the initiative of Germany. That is the inescapable fact arising out of recent developments in European affairs. Far from Germany being regarded as a pariah where the sanctity of international law is concerned, she is to be invited to participate, with Great Britain, France and Italy, in new plans for the guarantee of peace. In other words, the League has given its blessing to a Concert of the Powers and to a return to the ancient habit of peaceful diplomacy in which a limited number of nations are concerned. It is a question yet to be determined how far the League has consolidated its strength or the reverse. It is obvious once more that where action of one of the Great Powers is concerned the League is satisfied with a resolution condemning an incident which violates its principles.

TICKETS AND PURCHASING POWER

Some earnest and optimistic people have embraced with eagerness and hope the scheme of monetary reform that is associated with the name of Major Douglas, and in recommending to the public this well-advised doctrine of social credit are so sure of the soundness of their cause that they sometimes exhibit surprise and impatience, not to say resentment, towards those who are unable to accept at their face value either the large promises made by Major Douglas, or the reasons upon which the promises are based.

The hectoring tone adopted by some monetary reformers is out of place in what ought to be a scientific discussion. These good people should really put away their air of omniscience, restrain their robustious self-confidence, and devote their energies to an honest-to-goodness attempt at clear exposition suited to the intellectual grasp of the average man who is neither an enthusiast nor a mystic. Major Douglas, to give him his due, treats his audiences with civility and good humor, and in this respect sets an example to his disciples which some of them fail to imitate. In their vagueness of statement, on the other hand, in their failure to achieve clarity in explaining their system, in their slipshod methods of exposition generally they follow their leader only too faithfully.

One of his most recent utterances appeared in The Christian Science Monitor of April 3. In this fresh presentation of his views regarding money, Major Douglas again makes use, for expository purposes, of his oft-repeated analogy of railway tickets. He asks his readers to think of the monetary system as similar to a railway ticket system and to remember that the real difference between the two is that whereas money commands both goods and services the railway ticket is exchangeable for railway services only. "The money game," says Major Douglas, "can be visualized as a ticket system." The whole picture in this view exhibits the production of goods and the supply of services as one great collective whole related to a monetary system which is to be operated by the Government on the plan of railway tickets, the assumption being that the tickets printed by the railway company and the money printed by the Government are the same at bottom, both in form and in function.

This, however, is only playing with words. The supposed analogy does not hold. The comparison is inexact and misleading. In relation to its patrons the railway company is the provider of a certain kind of service, railway transportation. The State does not stand to the citizens in a relation of universal provider of goods and services. National currency is quite unlike railway tickets. The essential element in the transaction between the passenger and the ticket agent of the railway company is the exchange over the counter of real money for a railway ticket.

What purchases the service to be rendered by the railway company is not the printed railway ticket but the real money of the passenger. When the passenger hands his ticket to the conductor he is not purchasing railway transportation. That purchase was completed before his interview with the conductor. He is merely furnishing the conductor with evidence that he has purchased a service from the railway company, and purchased it with real money. Any attempt to illustrate the operation of a monetary system on the assumption that money in the economic world at large corresponds to railway tickets in the transportation business can only lead to confusion. If the Government were to increase greatly the amount of its currency, such action would produce very marked effects upon the business of the country. If a railway company were to increase greatly the number of railway tickets in the hands of the railway's ticket agents such action on the part of the company upon its passenger traffic would be precisely nil. Major Douglas's comparison between railway tickets and currency throws no light whatever upon monetary problems. Heine's prayerful utterance,

"The Lord deliver us from the Evil One and from metaphors," serves as a warning against analogical pitfalls as well.

The base of the Douglas theory proper is the idea that purchasing power distributed to consumers cannot equal the value of the goods produced because that purchasing power is confined to wages, salaries, and dividends. The assumption here is that raw materials, bank charges, upkeep of existing machinery and replacement of old, insurance, rent, and so on, are not included in the purchasing power distributed to the public. If this is anything more than an assumption it will, of course, have to explain what becomes of the money paid to the producer of raw material, to manufacturers for machinery, to bankers and others. If it reaches the individual consumer directly, as in the case of the producer of raw materials and ultimately in the case of manufacturers and bankers, it will certainly add to the purchasing power of consumers.

BONDHOLDERS

It is only a very small number of people who directly or indirectly are not bondholders. When there is repudiation of bonds, or of contracts affecting the interests of bondholders, there is monetary harm inflicted on the body politic as a whole. It is only those of the most constricted views on fiscal matters who cavalierly believe that repudiation affects a limited and favored few, and who are of opinion that bondholders should be made to suffer so that benefits may ensue to the taxpayers as a whole. The actual situation is far different to this. The power to pay taxes is definitely limited where there is repudiation. A system of ethics is violated. The belief in honesty is undermined.

The name of the bondholder is legion. A vast majority of the people of any country are benefited by bonds. It is upon bonds that the security of both banks and insurance companies rests. Benevolent societies, charities, pension funds, sinking funds, all rely on bonds. The citizens as a whole have a collective investment in bonds. Every individual who has taken out a life insurance policy, or a fire insurance policy, is similarly a bondholder. There is hardly an individual in the country who, in some way or other, is not interested in the security which bonds give, and where there is approval of repudiation it is tantamount to cutting off the nose to spite the face. It is only the unthinking portion of humanity that claims that bonds are the property of a favored few and of great corporations. Their sanctity comes closely home to everyone, to the nation as a whole. Repudiation is a doctrine of individual and national suicide, in a financial sense.

Mr. Lloyd George has submitted his "New Deal" proposals to the British Cabinet for consideration at the request of Mr. Ramsay MacDonald. No. 10 Downing Street is, however, a little bit disappointed. The plans embrace a typescript document of 98 pages and 35,000 words, but this is simply a foreword giving sufficient detail to explain the principles. There is more to follow; how much more only Mr. Lloyd George knows. In the initial memorandum there are no specific plans set forth. It is simply an exordium. Mr. Lloyd George is not one of those politicians who believes in "straight-flung words and few."

I KNOW A GARDEN

"I know a garden hidden from the street,
Where bees and butterflies are busy all the day;
A human haven, and a safe retreat,
From every noisy, worldly, weary way.

"Here, in the silent evening, visions of the past
Rise with the sweet odors of the flowers,
And ideals of the poets, framed to last,
Are born among these peaceful bowers.

"The world goes on its own mad pace,
While a new world stirs to beauty here;
A gentler, fairer, stronger race,
Whose hands are clean, whose eyes are clear."
—Joseph F. Crowell, "Outdoors and In,"
in The New Outlook.

Patience is a necessary ingredient of genius.
—Disraeli.

Note and Comment

By R. B. D.

Workmen are busy tearing down buildings to save taxes when someone should really be tearing down taxes to save the buildings.—From Maclean's Magazine.

Great Britain has balanced her budget again and has reduced taxation. London is increasing in population. Some of the large cities of this continent, including the big city of New York, the largest cities in Canada, are losing population. Victoria is not increasing in population. The districts surrounding this city are growing in population. There is more building in progress in Oak Bay and in Saanich than there is in the parent city. This phenomenon is not due to the depression—at least not entirely.

It is due to the oppression of the taxpayers. The decline in the population of New York, Toronto and Montreal is due to the oppression of taxpayers. The oppressive taxation of all cities is due to the high cost of government. Business is moving out of New York and out of Toronto and Montreal because business has found out that it can operate more cheaply in other places. London is growing in population and in trade and commerce and manufactures because the cost of government has been kept down and rates of taxation have not been raised to meet the excessive cost of government.

In all parts of this continent the taxpayers are in revolt and demanding economy in government and administration. The Federal Government of the United States has increased expenditures enormously and increased taxation correspondingly. The municipal government of New York claims that the fixed charges of administration preclude the possibility of reduction in expenditures and has budgeted for increases of taxation. Montreal and Toronto civic governments have made similar claims and have made no provision for reduction in taxation. There is scarcely a government of any kind in Canada which has made provision for actual balancing of its budget. The municipalities are appealing to the provinces for financial help and the provinces are threatening the Federal Government with political reprisals if it does not "come through" and lift them out of the slough of financial despond.

The cities are declining in population because citizens are fleeing across their borders in order to escape taxation which has practically become confiscatory. If governments will not balance their budgets, oppressed taxpayers will find some way of balancing their financial relations with governments. The people are not fettered to the cities. If business cannot be profitably carried on within certain municipal boundaries, America is a big continent, and business can migrate to more inviting fields, just as the farmers of the United States and Canada did when the population began to be congested in the East. A revolution is taking place, but it is not the sort of revolt our Socialistic and Communistic and revolutionary idealists have been looking forward to with such unholy glee. There is in progress a readjustment of the balance of population, and when that is completed there will be a readjustment of the rates of taxation. That will be a splendid thing for the physical health as well as for the business health of the populace.

There is an element, a very insignificant element, we believe, of the people of Canada who despise the people of Britain—or perhaps we should say the people of England—and the manner in which they administer their political and business affairs. That element never loses an opportunity of stating that we do everything much better in Canada, that the people of Canada would be much better off if they severed all relations with the Mother Country and severed the last link in the chain of Empire, as the Free State has tried to do, but has not quite succeeded in doing, by selecting a Canadian as Governor-General. Well, that is all a matter of taste, or perhaps we should say of inherited or instilled prejudice. Our belief is that the average Canadian, by birth, blood or residence, is not worrying his mind at all about such trivial things, does not care a button whether the representative of the Crown be a member of the English nobility, a commoner of distinction, such as John Buchan, an Irishman of outstanding gifts—such as the Marquis of Dufferin—or a statesman such as Sir Robert Borden, so long as he discharges the duties of his high office within the terms of the constitution. It is not the alleged slight to Canada which is in the minds of the persons who write or inspire letters to the papers on the subject of the appointment of Mr. Buchan. It is something entirely different, and might be illuminating if it were exposed.

Well, Why Not?

With Royal Commissions, special committees and investigating bodies roaming the country delving into every sort of problem, isn't it about time to appoint a Royal Commission to find out what happens to reports made by Royal Commissions?—B. A. M.

Blue Eagle or Dodo Bird?

While Britain "muddles" along to regain eight per cent of her pre-depression prosperity, newspapers to the South are clamoring for an axe to lop off the heads of the Blue Eagle and the goose that failed to lay a golden egg for the farmers. About the only hatchlings of those two birds to date has been a flock of numerals after the dollar sign.—R. A. G.

He Hasn't Qualified Yet

On reading the account of the recent reunion of the ladies and gentlemen who sat as jurors to convict a man of child-murder a couple of months previously, it seemed a pity they could not have had the "state electrician" as one of the party. He would have made an excellent "chairman" for such a gathering.—R. L. P.

May They Whisper, Please?

Just four days after Boy Scouts made so successful an exhibition before Lord Baden-Powell at Willows Park, a bombshell was thrown into their midst. Twenty-five ratapayers residing on Johnson, Vancouver, Cook and Pandora Avenues wrote to the City Council, requesting that the Scouts be ousted from the headquarters on Johnson Street because of the bedlam allegedly created by the "good-turn-a-day" lads. Some of the complaints came from sections of the streets far removed from the Scout hall. How can active, growing boys get together and keep quiet? Would it be in order to ask complainants to look up Webster's definition of intolerance?—G. B.

Not an Advertisement

The recent offering by several local men's clothing stores of tartan ties at a price any Scot can afford to pay has made a big hit with the staff. Even the Sassanachs among us are hunting for some trace of Scottish ancestry in their pedigrees so as to have some justification for sporting the artistic and economical neckwear.

But please don't offer a cheap line of bagpipes for sale anybody!—R. L. P.

Pulling the Wool Over the Herring's Eyes

So far as actual "catch" is concerned, scientific fishing sometimes isn't in it with the primitive stick and a bit of string and a bent pin attached. People passing over the Gorge Bridge last evening were fascinated with a sight of a bevy of boys pulling up herrings almost as fast as they could take them off the hook, a simple contraption with a bit of red wool attached to catch the unsuspecting eye of the fish. Seven youths on a single small float wielded their seven bamboo rods with such good effect that within the space of a few minutes each had a generous parcel to take home for the family supper.—J. E. ### How About It?

School Trustee Kenneth Ferguson has a suggestion for the Tourist Trade Development Association with the co-operation of the civic authorities. He suggests combined dancing and swimming at the Crystal Garden nightly between 8 o'clock and midnight, the music to be broadcast, and about a thousand multi-colored Japanese lanterns strung above the shores of the lakes in Beacon Hill Park. These would be great attractions to tourists, he claims.—W. J. H.

Dear, Dear, How They Grow!

Those who knew "Muzz" Patrick in old Arena days, when he captained a midget hockey team here, must have gazed in awe Tuesday afternoon when he was seen striding through the city with Lynn Patrick. "Muzz" now tips the beam at over 200 pounds and stands more than a fathom in his socks.—G. B.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily British Colonist of April 18, 1885)

Loan By-Law—The by-law to authorize the raising of a loan of $75,000 for waterworks purposes will be submitted for the vote of the ratepayers on April 18, between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Militia Fine—Two cases of disobedience to orders came before E. Johnson yesterday. One, against a young man named Smith, was discharged, it being proved that he had asked some time ago for his discharge, and had sent his "civies" home. The other was against J. Cronwell, who was fined $5, and requested to be more punctual in future.

Gazetted—The following have been appointed justices of the peace: Henry Croft, Chemist, for the Province; Isaac-Cole James Baker, of Skookum Creek, for the Province; Robert A. Kootenay, and Arthur W. Baker, for the electoral district of Kootenay, and Arthur W. Baker, for the electoral district of Cowichan.

Lucky Find—H. B. Derr, of Boston Bar, came down to Victoria on Tuesday and brought with him a nugget of pure gold, weighing about 6½ oz. While walking on his ranch he noticed a piece of quartz slightly above ground, and attempting to pick it up, he discovered a large piece. Hammering out the rotten quartz, he found a large irregular piece of gold, which now looks like a honey-comb with the quartz separated from it.

BERING SEA DISPUTES

Sir.—In Mr. A. D. Martin's letter, dated April 11, he refers to an article published in The Colonist of September 1, 1887, which is a report of an indignation meeting held by distinguished Victoria citizens. The object of the meeting was to protest against the illegal seizure of Canadian sealing vessels by American cutters, and calling upon the English Navy to protect them.

Had they been sealing men and acquainted with conditions along the Coast, they would have realized that it was an impossible task. To prove that a seizure was illegal it would have been necessary for both an English and American man-of-war to be at the same place at the same time to witness the seizure. Impossible!

Allow me to relate an instance to show the position the Canadian sealers were placed in. By our reckoning we were well outside the limit and had all the boats out as usual. The weather was thick and no land in sight. To our surprise an English cutter ran alongside and told us that we were a mile inside the limit. He let us off.

An American cutter would have seized the vessel and all the natives in the world could not have saved us. The real cause of the Bering Sea dispute was when the invested interests in pelagic sealing clashed with the powerful invested interests of financiers who had leased the Pribilof Islands from the American Government and, as usual, the big fish swallowed the little fish.

We in Victoria at that time naturally took a parochial view of the controversy, but for us to expect the English Government to take any course other than to come to an agreement by negotiation is unthinkable.

Mr. Martin certainly goes a long way back to find an opportunity to slur the English people. Perhaps it would be best to consider the source and treat it with silent contempt.

W. F. EMERY.

BERING SEA PATROL

Sir.—Mr. A. D. Martin, in his last effort to hand, states that as far as he is concerned this correspondence is closed. He would have been well advised if he had never commenced it, but having done so he cannot be allowed to escape some of the consequences.

The Bering Sea disputes were settled by the court of arbitration held in Paris in the year 1893. Prior to that time no one could say with absolute authority to whom the sealing rights belonged and, as related by Mr. Martin, a number of Canadian sealing vessels were seized by American patrol vessels. These high-handed and almost practical acts are, perhaps, samples of the American protection which Mr. Martin says is so ready to be extended to us in case of need.

The wonderful but unconscious humor that can be developed by a mind inspired by intense and bitter hatred of British institutions would make an interesting study by those engaged in investigating mental derangements. It is, however, absolutely false to say, as Mr. Martin said, that British warships arrested any Canadian sealers during the time of these disputes, prior to 1893. The British contention was that outside the three-mile limit of the American breeding islands the seal industry was open to the world. The American contention was that inasmuch as the principal breeding grounds were the American Pribilof Islands, the seals of the Bering Sea belonged to them. Which of these conflicting views was correct could be settled only by arbitration, and this the British and Canadian Governments demanded and got.

The alternative was war, which would not have proved the righteousness of either of the contending parties; and what a war it would have been! What an example to the rest of the civilized world to see the two great branches of the Anglo-Saxon peoples engaged in a fratricidal struggle of immense proportions.

Canada with her undefended frontiers extending for thousands of miles, would have been invaded; invaded but not subdued, because her own heroic sons and brothers from all parts of the Empire would have rallied to her assistance and the invaders pushed back. American shipping would have been swept from the seven seas, and millions of American, Canadian and other British people slaughtered and their homes made desolate. Hatred and jealousies would have been engendered to live for many generations, perhaps centuries.

To the credit of the British and Canadian Governments, and the good-sense of the best of the Americans, peace was maintained and the disputes settled by arbitration. We boast of the over one hundred years of peace and our undefended British and American frontiers, but much of the credit for this state of affairs must be given to British and Canadian Governments. It has been British policy for many years to try and cultivate the most friendly relations with the American people. The best Americans appreciate this fact, but unfortunately many of her citizens have been misinformed and misled by some politicians who indulged, in years gone by, in the playful pastime of attempting to "twist the lion's tail." They were, in the main, after the Irish-American vote.

During the years of the Home Rule for Ireland agitation, agitators from that distressful country came over to America for funds and poured out their tales of woe to their compatriots and sympathizers. There is reason to believe that Irish-Americans and "Irish Canadian-Martins" were somewhat disappointed that the Bering Sea disputes did not lead to a gigantic war between the British Empire and the United States. However, that may be, Mr. Martin has intimated in a veiled but nevertheless decided fashion, that in such an event that he would rush to the assistance of the United States.

Mr. Martin holds now a lucrative position under the Crown in a department of our Provincial Administration. He was appointed by the Pattullo Government. It is "up to" that Government to remove him and make room for a loyal British subject who will respect his oath of office.

MUSIC

Tis music soothes the troubled mind.
Brings memories of the past,
And gives new hope, to those may-be,
Who in despair are cast.

There's music in the air and sea,
You'll find it everywhere,
A gift Dame Nature doth provide
For all who seek it here.

What sweeter than the skylark's trill,
The song of nightingale,
The rustling wind amid the trees,
The swirl of rain and hail.

The sound that comes from rippling brook,
The roaring of the sea,
Those sounds are music, sweet indeed,
And Nature gives them free.

To Commemorate Passion of Christ In Many Services

Three Hours' Services, Pontifical Mass, Union
Gathering and Sacred Cantatas to Feature
Church Life Here During Passiontide

A UNITED gathering at the Metropolitan Church, under the auspices of the Ministerial Association; three hours' services at Christ Church Cathedral and St. Barnabas' Church; Masses and stations of the Cross at St. Andrew's Cathedral and Church of Our Lady, Queen of Peace, along with sacred cantatas tonight and Friday evening in several churches, are some features of the many services that will be held in the city churches to commemorate the crucifixion of Christ.

A list of the services follow:
Ministerial Association—Friday, 11 a.m., Metropolitan Church, Rev. E. F. Church presiding. Preacher, Rev. Dr. E. A. Henry; Scripture lesson, Rev. T. A. Janson; prayer, Major Fullerton.

AT CHRIST CHURCH

Christ Church Cathedral—Tonight at 8 o'clock; preacher, Rev. E. W. P. Carter, Coquitlam. Friday, Litany and ante-communion service, 7:30 a.m.; children's service, 9:30 a.m.; preacher, Dean Quinlan; Matins, preacher, the Dean; three hours' service, 12 noon to 3 p.m.; Rev. E. Robotham, of Chemainus; recital, 8 p.m.; Saturday, Matins and ante-communion, 8 a.m. Evening song, 5:15 p.m.

St. John's Church—Friday, 11 a.m., Matins and sermon, Rev. Canon Chadwick; Stainer's "Crucifixion," 8 p.m.

St. Barnabas—Three hours' devotion; conductor, Rev. E. C. Pritchard, of St. Clement's, Seattle.

St. Mary's—Today, Holy Communion, 8 a.m.; Friday, Litany, ante-communion and sermon, 11 a.m.; Lenten cantata, "The Passion of Christ" (P. E. Fletcher), not hitherto given in Victoria; choir assisted by Miss Phyllis Deaville.

STRAWBERRY VALE

CONSIDER PETITION OF DR. CLEM DAVIES

Qualifications necessary to ministers before they may conduct the marriage ceremony in British Columbia are largely a matter of legal interpretation, Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir stated yesterday in connection with the application of Rev. Dr. Clem Davies for reinstatement on the roll of marrying parsons within the province.

During the day Dr. Davies filed a petition with the Provincial Secretary's Office, but did not see the Provincial Secretary. The matter would be considered, Dr. Weir said.

MAJOR P. F. LENOX MacFARLANE

Sought Island Highway When Idea Not Popular

Major P. F. Lenox MacFarlane, Who Recently Celebrated Ninetieth Birthday, Was First to Conceive Project of Road Over Malahat

Major P. F. Lenox MacFarlane, of 614 Craigflower Road, who celebrated his ninetieth birthday a few days ago, was the first person to conceive the idea that a road could be built from Victoria to Cobble Hill, over the route now followed by the Island Highway.

Born at Huntstown House, County Dublin, on April 7, 1845, Major MacFarlane is the eldest son of the late Henry J. MacFarlane, D.L., of Ireland. He was educated at the Royal School, Dungannon, and at Trinity College, Dublin, where he took his B.A. in 1866.

In 1867 he joined the 3rd (Prince of Wales) Dragoon Guards, his commission being dated May 8, that year. In the early 'eighties he was appointed major of the 3rd Brigade S.J.D., R.A.

WAS GOOD HORSEMAN

Like most Irishmen, he was a good horseman, and was well-known in his day with the Ward Union stag hounds and the Meath hounds also as a successful steeplechase rider.

For twenty-one years he sat as a magistrate for County Dublin. In 1898 he came to Canada, and after

CALLED MEETING

While he was agitating the possibilities of the Malahat Road, Major MacFarlane called a meeting at Cobble Hill to talk over the project, but interest was so small that only three or four residents attended, among those present being Mr. Hollings and Major MacFarlane's son-in-law, R. W. Frayne.

Thunderbird Bowl Will Be Exhibited In Mainland City

THE Thunderbird Bowl, manufactured here and exhibited in Spencer's window yesterday, went to Vancouver last night by Canadian Pacific Express. The bowl will be exhibited in the Mainland city today, and will be shipped in charge of Canadian National Express to Montreal, where it will be turned over to Canadian Pacific Steamships for carriage across the Atlantic.

The bowl, a contribution from British Columbia to the King's Silver Jubilee cancer fund, will be filled with nuggets and accompanied by a message from Premier T. D. Pattullo to His Majesty on behalf of the people of the province.

One daughter, Mrs. Frayne, lives on Fernwood Road.

Despite his advanced age, Major MacFarlane is very active both in mind and body, and only a few days ago, decided to give up cycling and dispose of his bicycle.

REPRESENTATIVE IN NEW ZEALAND

Canadian Pacific Railway Promotes
Gordon A. Glennie to Post in Southern Dominion

MONTREAL, April 17.—Gordon A. Glennie, former manager of the British Reunion Association of the Canadian Pacific Railway, is on his way to Wellington, N.Z., to which point he has been transferred as passenger representative.

With him goes Mrs. Glennie, who is also well known throughout the country by her magazine articles.

Still a very young man, Mr. Glennie has had a rapid rise in the service of the Canadian Pacific Railway since joining the company as clerk in the general manager's office on June 1, 1922.

On June 1, 1926, he was made secretary to Col. J. S. Dennis, then chief commissioner for the department of immigration and colonization. On April 1, 1934, he was made manager of the British Reunion Association, which office he held until his latest promotion. He was born in London, England, on October 16, 1902.

COUNCIL CUTS JUBILEE GRANT

Hospital Will Receive $54,000 Instead of $60,000
Allowed in 1934

The City Council yesterday afternoon tentatively lopped $6,000 off the annual grant to be made to the Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital, setting the figure at $54,000. Last year $60,000 was paid to the institution by the city.

Mayor Leeming pointed out that the city was paying more than its share of hospital costs on account of Sanquin failing to contribute its portion. He asserted the reduction would bring home to the Provincial Government the fact that Victoria was unfairly made to pay for other patients beside its own in the institution.

His Worship, with Aldermen Lunn, Brown and Worthington, will discuss advisability of spending some $2,000 on the old Jubilee nurses' home to fit it up to take care of city patients at present in nursing homes.

ESTIMATES CUT

Dealing with municipal council estimates, aldermen reduced car hire allowance from $500 to $300; entertainment estimates, from $2,000 to $1,500, and increased the Mayor's salary by $400 per annum. Legal department expenses for legislation were reduced from $1,500 to $1,300.

Items passed included $2,250 for the controller's office; $3,570, assessor's office; city clerk's office; $1,120, $550, building inspector's office; $220, purchasing agent's department; $475, wiring inspector's office; automobile allowance increased from $210 to $270 in the land department; $145, city stores; $843.58, cemetery maintenance; $1,500, boulevard maintenance; Victoria-Saanich beaches and parks committee grant increased from $1,600 to $2,000; city pound, $430; fire truck repairs, reduced from $1,400 to $900.

ITEMS PASSED

Cluster light maintenance was cut from $2,000 to $1,000; $900 passed for market and fair weights and measures department; $300 added to Home for Aged and Infirm Men for hospital expenses; $600, Y.W.C.A. Social Service Centre, $600, Salvation Army, $250, Y.M.C.A., $1,800, mothers' pensions, $15,000; grants under Mothers' Pension Act, $500; Y.W.C.A. travelers' aid, $300; Ida Street Home, $1,100; water bills, $2,500; Charitable Aid fund, $2,000; Provincial Laboratory, $7,000; Victorian Order of Nurses grant, cut from $3,000 to $2,500; engineer's department, maintenance, $913; blue prints and maps, $150; Johnson Street bridge, $4,400.

City Hall maintenance figures of $4,090 were tabled. Parks committee estimates of $17,722.46 were referred to the special committee, as were fire department expenses, street lighting maintenance, Home for Aged and Infirm Men general expenses, Home for Aged and Infirm Women, Maple Rest Home, Children's Aid Society, Isolation Hospital, Board of Health, expenses, streets maintenance, street sweep-

Plain Song
Subject of Discourse
A fascinating talk by Major J. A. P. Crompton on the development of sacred music from the time of the introduction of Plain Song in Rome in the first year of the Christian era down to the present time was a feature of the general meeting of the Victoria Music Teachers' Association held yesterday morning at the Y.W.C.A. rooms.

The speaker noted that after the passing of several centuries during which plain song practically disappeared, the nineteenth century had witnessed a revival of it, and recordings of great interest had been made of the monks' chants. All sacred music, it was maintained, should have the quality of prayer and holiness, free from ostentation and affectation. The older sacred music was too elaborate, this robbing it of its quality of meditation.

PLAIN SONG CHOIR
Of immediately related interest to the foregoing information was the intimation by Major Crompton that a plain song choir would in the near future be formed in Victoria.

The business of the meeting (which was well attended) included an expression of thanks to Mrs. Paget Mellor for the delightful evening she had given the members on Thursday, April 11, when Stanley Bulley had given an interesting address on Gustav Holst, illustrated by gramophone records of his "Planets."

RECEIVED NO PORTION OF LOST FUNDS

Convicted Hospital Manager Testifies in Behalf of Accused Accountant

COMMON PRACTICE TO CARRY I.O.U.'S

VANCOUVER, April 17 (CP).—Frederick Biggins did not receive a cent of the $13,598, which he is charged with embezzling from the Vancouver General Hospital, George Haddon, former business manager and secretary for the institution, testified today when Biggins' trial on the theft charge opened in county court today.
Haddon pleaded guilty in police court recently to theft of the money and was sentenced to three years' imprisonment.

ADJOURNED FOR ARGUMENT

Evidence in the case was completed today and the case adjourned until next Thursday for argument of counsel.
Biggins would have been with the hospital twenty-five years as accountant in August. He and Haddon were discharged when the defalcation was discovered a month ago.
Haddon said he concealed the shortage by giving I.O.U.'s to the cashier.

J. H. McVety, honorary treasurer of the hospital, stated that Biggins admitted Haddon could not have got the money without Biggins' knowledge. The shortages extended over four or five years.
Haddon said that two years ago he had reimbursed the general account with $5,000, which he had borrowed from friends, then continued withdrawing funds on I.O.U.'s until he owed the account $3,700.

He said it was common practice for years to carry I.O.U.'s in the account for members of the staff on account of their wages.

"Do I understand you to say that, although Biggins had knowledge of your stealing, he could do nothing?" Judge J. N. Ellis asked.

"His only resource was to go to the hospital board and report it," Haddon answered.

Biggins was asked why he did not report the shortages.
"Mr. Haddon was considered an honorable man by everybody," Biggins replied. "He had straightened out his I.O.U.'s for $5,000 once before, and I thought he would do it again."

GARAGEMEN FORM NEW ASSOCIATION

First steps in organization of a Victoria branch of B.C. Garagemen's Association were taken at the K. of P. Hall on Broad Street last evening, when sixty-five garage and service station operators elected E. C. Bingham, president, and R. J. Jameson and R. R. Taylor, directors.
Objects of the association are to secure legislation for the licensing of master mechanics, journeymen mechanics and apprentices. This means that no garage could be opened up without employment of a fully competent staff.
Indiscriminate buying of automotive parts by the general public will be curbed by the issuance of cards bearing numbers to legitimate service stations and garages.
The association is also against establishment of any more service stations in the province.

Forty Face Court After Police Call

Laundrymen, cooks, waiters, houseboys, laborers and shopmen, forty of them and all in one room over 557 Fisgard Street, were surprised by officers of the law late yesterday afternoon and escorted to police headquarters to be charged with being found in a public gaming house.
Bail was set at twenty-five dollars each and the majority of those arrested were able to secure the required amount for their release. Others, not so fortunate, will have to remain as guests of Chief Heatley and the city until their cases are called in the police court.

New Police Car—The Police Commission was yesterday given authority by the City Council to invite tenders for a second-hand automobile not costing over $450, or alternatively a new machine not to exceed $1,200. Aldermen McGavin and Lunney thought it would be poor economy to purchase a second-hand vehicle. The council approved the commissioners' acceptance of the ## Work Orders Coming—New Regulations Under the Hours of Work Act affecting drivers in road transportation and possibly other enterprises are expected to be announced by the British Columbia Industrial Relations Board today. A plea from Mainland dairy interests that milk delivery drivers work ten hours a day for seven days a week, with one week off in seven, will not be entertained by the board, it is understood. A fifty-six-hour week for milk drivers was being unofficially mentioned.

Ministers Leaving—Three members of the Cabinet will leave before the end of this week for points East. Hon. John Hart and Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir are going to Ottawa on separate missions, while Hon. P. M. MacPherson will start today for the Kootenays, on the first of a round of visits to British Columbia engineering districts to examine road conditions at first hand. Attorney-General Sloan will leave next week, for Ottawa, to appear before the Supreme Court of Canada.

More Cars Operate—While totals for the year are not complete, there has been a 6 per cent gain in the number of cars on British Columbia roads as at March this year. Provincial motor licence officials said yesterday. New passenger car registrations were 1,154, with a total of 3,409 more cars on the road than at a corresponding date last year.

Pink Lilies—A beautiful bouquet of wild erythronium of a delicate shade of rose pink was brought to The Colonist offices yesterday by W. Bonkoun, of Victoria. The flowers were picked at the San Juan Logging Company's property at Port Renfrew. This is one of the few places on Vancouver Island where the pink erythronium grows.

Discuss Clothing—After conversations with Provincial relief officers yesterday, Alderman W. W. Straith, and Relief Officer W. H. Bone, of Vancouver, announced that the Citizens' Central Clothing committee of that city would carry on operations until June 1. Meanwhile, the Province is to maintain the sixty-fourth ratio on relief clothing allowances, as before.

One Holiday Only—May 6, formally known as Accession Day, will be a public holiday within the scope of the Weekly Half-Holiday Act, allowing stores to remain open on the customary half-holiday in that week, the Government decided yesterday. In the case of Victoria, stores must close on May 6, but may remain open on the Wednesday following.

Met Dairymen—Hon. K. C. MacDonald returned from the Mainland yesterday, after meeting organized and independent dairymen on a number of issues in connection with milk production and distribution in the Fraser Valley. The existence of marketing statutes has not brought complete unanimity, as yet, it was indicated.

Holiday Here—Gordon D. Ritchie, Winnipeg, western superintendent of the Imperial Bank of Canada, arrived in Victoria yesterday, accompanied by his wife, Mr. Ritchie explained he was "on holiday" and did not wish to talk business, but did admit that he found conditions considerably improved, and there was a spirit of optimism prevailing. The visitors are staying at the Empress Hotel.

Parade Horses—Island Queen Contest officials yesterday informed the City Council that General E. C. Ashton, C.M.G., V.D., will seek authority from Ottawa to loan the city eight draft horses and harness to draw carriages containing May Queen contestants to the celebratory parade here. The city will take out public liability insurance for the vehicles.

Tree Grafting—A demonstration of grafting was given by E. W. White, district horticulturist of the Provincial Department of Agriculture, in the garden of P. R. Leighton, 356 St. Charles Street, yesterday afternoon. Some thirty-five persons were present. Desirable varieties of apples were grafted onto a tree of an undesirable variety. MARSHALL—Many friends attended funeral services held yesterday afternoon for the late Mrs. Celia Elizabeth Marshall. Rev. Dr. Clem Davies conducted an impressive service, during which two hymns, "Abide With Me" and "Peace, Perfect Peace," were sung. A large number of beautiful floral tributes were received, testifying to the high esteem in which Mrs. Marshall was held by her many friends. The following acted as pallbearers: Harry Erickson, R. C. Love, Fred Bennett, J. Pearson, G. P. Bannister and Harold W. Davis. Interment was made in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

Cantata Is Well Sung By Choir

Farmer's Easteride cantata, "Christ and His Disciples," was sung at the Church of Our Lord, Humboldt Street, last evening, by a choir of about forty voices, assisted by a number of good soloists.

The presentation of the work was both interesting and appealing, the choir, under the direction of Harold Davis, showing excellent balance and vitality, and producing a pleasing quality of tone. They were particularly impressive in the interpretation of the two choruses in the second half, "Soldiers of Christ," and "On in Danger, On in Woe," which have a martial character.

The opening part of the work, portraying the life of Christ, also offers some interesting choruses, "O Come, All Ye Faithful," "Ride On, Ride On in Majesty," "Cleft Are the Rocks, the Earth Doth Quake," and the big chorus with solo, "Jesus Christ Is Risen Today," where Mrs. A. L. Stevens carried the solo part with distinction.

PRINCIPAL SOLOS

The principal solos were assigned as follows, all being most ably sung: "Hark the Thrilling Voice Is Sounding," Mrs. P. Shandley, soprano; "Our Blest Redeemer," Miss Newbury, soprano; "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," Clarence Kirchin, tenor; "Be Thou Faithful Unto Death," J. W. Petch, baritone; "And Did the Son of God Appear," P. Kitley, bass, and "In Token That Thou Shalt Not Fear," A. Birchall, bass.

Mr. Davis, who conducted, also presided at the console of the organ most competently. The cantata was preceded by a short prayer service, the singing of a hymn, and the reciting of the Collect for the day.

Anglican Young People

ST. JOHN'S
The Blackfoot Indians, their history and customs proved an interesting subject for a lantern lecture given by Rev. Canon Stockton, of St. Martin's-in-the-Field, to the members of St. John's A.Y.P.A. on Monday evening. The missionary work done among the Indians was fully covered and many amusing incidents of the life and habits were recalled by the speaker, who has spent thirty-seven years in their midst.

During the business session, Messrs. Alan Paver and J. Hooper were given charge of the "mystery" night. In this connection a dance will be held in the Foresters' Hall on May 10 from 9 to 1 o'clock. Rev. Canon Chadwick, S. C. Hawkins, S. Cooper and Miss L. Trickett were elected as a nominating committee to report at the annual meeting and elections on May 17. It was agreed to hold a hike on May 6. On April 22 a full-dress rehearsal for the play will take place at 7:30 p.m. A special corporate Communion service will be held on Sunday at 8 a.m., followed by breakfast and Bible class.

On Good Friday members will meet at the church at 10 a.m., then hike to Thetis Lake. Those going are reminded to take their lunch and a cup. A service will be held at St. John's at 8 o'clock in the evening, at which all members are asked to attend. The next regular meeting will be held on April 29.

DUNCAN

St. John's (Duncan) Branch of the Anglican Young People's Association held an enrollment of new members at St. John's Church on Tuesday evening, Rev. A. Bischlager conducting the enrollment ceremony. New members joining were Misses Phyllis Cook, Gladys Saunders and Ella Anderson, and Messrs. Ed Whitaker and Eric Hall. Following enrollment, a business meeting was held in the church hall, when Mr. Hughes spoke on the A.Y.P.A. and Fellowship, and especially fellowship between young and old. The hike planned for Good Friday was cancelled. It was decided that the Mid-Island conference would be held at Duncan on April 27 and 28. Miss Leone Langlois presided.

Clubs-Societies

Salt Spring W.A.

The monthly meeting of the Salt Spring Woman's Auxiliary took place recently at Ganges House, the president, Mrs. H. Moorhouse, in the chair. As a special effort is being made to raise funds to meet the apportionment due to the diocesan board from the parish, it was voted, on the suggestion of Mrs. Stuart Holmes, to hold a home-cooking sale, tea and variety programme on Tuesday, May 7, at "Barnsbury," the home of Mrs. N. W. Wilson. Mrs. Holmes was appointed general convener, with Mrs. S. P. Beech in charge of the tea. The date for the annual garden fête and sale of work was fixed for Tuesday, July 23. The fête will take place at the vicarage, and the secretary was instructed to write St. Mary's Guild, Fulford Harbor, requesting the members to join with them in the organizing, as on former occasions. There was discussion regarding the annual pledge fund, and it was proposed and passed that a similar amount as last year be contributed, and if possible, more will be added to that amount. The tea hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. G. B. Young and Mrs. Stuart Holmes.

Britannia Lodge

Britannia Lodge No. 216 held its regular meeting in the Orange Hall recently. W.M. Mrs. Miller presided, assisted by W.D. Mrs. Burke. The lodge was honored upon this occasion by the presence of the following officers: R.W.G.M., Mrs. Findley, R.W. Past G.M., Mrs. Beckett, R.W. Past G.M., Mrs. Allen, and R.W. Grand treasurer, Mrs. Trawsdale, Victoria. The initiation ceremony and special drill review were conducted for the benefit of the grand officers present. The R.W.G.M., Mrs. Findley, gave a resume of her recent visit to the lodges of British Columbia. W.M. Mrs. Miller presented a gift to the grand lodge officers, on behalf of Lodge No. 216, as a small token of esteem. Refreshments were served.

Wilkinson Road W.A.

The monthly meeting of the W.A. of Wilkinson Road United Church was held at the home of the president, Mrs. J. Hoy, Wellington Road. An encouraging report was given of the recent "Beth Parker Night." It was decided that a home-cooking stall be held on May 18, and a committee was named to make arrangements. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. Rainer, Leenholt Road, when Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Hodgson will be the refreshment committee.

Navy League W.A.

The Women's Auxiliary to the Navy League will hold a silver tea at Sea Cadet headquarters, Outer Wharf, on Saturday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock.

Daughters of St. George

Princess Patricia Lodge No. 238 will hold its regular meeting tomorrow. This will be the last meeting prior to the banquet. All members are asked to be present.

P.T.A. Activities

LANGFORD

The monthly meeting of the Langford P.T.A. Association was held in the schoolhouse, Mrs. D. B. F. Bullen presiding. Mrs. R. P. Reynolds was elected recorder. The secretary notified the members of the change of by-laws in the provincial constitution, which has now received its charter. The business meeting was followed by a talk by Mr. W. E. Stevenson, late inspector of normal schools in Saskatchewan. He spoke on "The Relationship That Exists Between Home and School."

SHIRLEY

There was a good attendance at the last meeting of the Shirley Institute, held at the home of the vice-president, Mrs. W. J. Shannon. Mrs. Edwin Clark, president, was in the chair. A donation was made to cover the expenses for the year of the Junior Poultry Club. Seven members joined the Potato Club, and cereal seed was distributed among the members for competition. Two auditors were elected, Mrs. H. J. Kirby and Mrs. Edwin Banner. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. J. Kirby, when all the ladies of the district will be entertained as guests of the institute. Tea was served by the hostess, assisted by the refreshment committee composed of Mrs. M. A. Clark and Mrs. Banner. One new member was welcomed.

WEST SAANICH

The West Saanich Institute held a bridge party on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. Haddon, Clark Avenue, Brentwood Bay. The proceeds will be for the Jubilee cancer fund. Those winning prizes were: Mrs. S. Lee, Mrs. J. Roberts, and Mrs. A. Guy. Refreshments were served by Mrs. T. Haddon, Mrs. E. Rochon and Mrs. H. Gilbert. Those present were: Mesdames E. Whitehouse, C. Maher, C. Atkins, M. Atkins, H. Gilbert, E. Rochon, C. Gilmore, H. Andrew, S. Moody, L. Thomson, T. Haddon, Brandon, A. Francis, McLennan, A. Guy, and W. O. Wallace.

WILL HOLD DANCE

The P. & T. Chemical Company will hold a dance in honor of its candidate in the May 24 Queen contest, Miss Barbara Pollard. The dance will be held in the K. of C. Hall on Monday, April 29. Miss Pollard yesterday extended an invitation to all candidates, with their managers, to be her guests at the function.

Three Plays Produced by Drama Group

Spencer's Dramatic Club held a very pleasant evening on Monday, when they presented three one-act plays to the members of the Sports and Social Club and their friends. This was the club's second performance since its inauguration and showed a marked improvement over their first play. The audience was most appreciative and showed their pleasure by prolonged applause.

The first play was a scene in an old Quaker cottage in the early days of the Puritans in New England; it was a quaint little play and held the audience's attention throughout. The second play took place in an old-timer's shack in the hills of Old Virginia, a comedy which drew a laugh per minute. The third play took place in modern times, when family squabbles were quite the thing. Two black-outs were put on between changing of scenes: "The Chain Gang" and "The Wrong Flat."

These plays were all directed by H. S. Hurn. Those taking part were Lil Songhurst, Hilda McGillivray, Kay Jubb, Phoebe Newnham, Daisy Dunnett, Roy Thomson, Lloyd Gann, Bill Hamilton and Jim O'Connor. Incidental music, which was much enjoyed, was supplied by Len Acres. The back-stage work was capably handled by S. Saunders and Bob Davidson, while the attractive costumes worn by members of the cast were the result of effective workmanship of Bernice Colbert.

Weddings

WHITE-RODGER

In a setting of Spring flowers, the wedding took place at 8 o'clock last evening in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. A. Bown, Lovatt Avenue, of Enid Victoria, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Rodger, 3241 Maple Street, and Mr. Frederick White, only son of Mr. and Mrs. James White, 2953 Cedar Hill Road.

Rev. W. G. Wilson, D.D., performed the service, and the music was supplied by Miss Lillian Grant, who played the bagpipes. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a pretty frock of ashes of roses blazer crepe and a matching hat, and carried a shower bouquet of Calla lilies, roses and carnations. She was attended by her niece, Miss Beatrice Bown, in a frock of pale green crepe, and hat to match, whose bouquet was of pink tulips and blue lilies. Mr. Albert Smith supported the groom. Mrs. Rodger and Mrs. White both wore gowns of black silk crepe, and corsage bouquets of carnations and violets, respectively.

The supper table was set with a handsome lace cloth and centered with the three-tiered cake, made and decorated by the groom's mother, and was adorned with vases of daffodils and tall tapers in silver candlesticks. After a honeymoon in Vancouver, for which the bride left in a brown tweed suit with blending accessories, Mr. and Mrs. White will make their home at 1424 Edgeware Road.

TO BE MARRIED TODAY
VANCOUVER, April 17 (CP).—The wedding of Miss Margaret Grace McNamara, of Calgary, formerly of Regina, and Horace Barry McClung, of Victoria, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McClung, the latter being Nellie McClung, the novelist, will be solemnized here tomorrow. Following the wedding at Canadian Memorial Chapel, the young couple will leave by boat for a honeymoon in the South, after which they will make their home in Victoria.

LINEN SHOWER DONATIONS
Additional donations to the Protestant Orphans' Home linen shower are as follows: Mrs. (Dr.) Campbell, towels; Mrs. E. W. Whittington, towels, and Mrs. Agnes A. Kennell, towels.

Brilliant German Wedding

An exclusive picture of General Hermann Wilhelm Goering, Prussian Premier and Reichminister of Air, with his bride, the beautiful Emmy Sonnemann of the German stage. The marriage was one of the most brilliant and colorful since the days of the Hohenzollerns. Hitler and Reichminister Goebbels were best men. Thirty-three thousand troops, as well as thousands of other members of patriotic organizations were in attendance.

Junior W. A. Cabaret Will Aid Children

Both the ballroom and tearoom at the Empress Hotel will be used on Monday night for the charity cabaret being sponsored by the Junior Auxiliary of St. Joseph's Hospital with the assistance of the Knights of Columbus. This annual cabaret, which is always a popular event, will benefit the children's ward of the hospital.

The cabaret numbers will surpass those of previous years and there will be a specialty number by Miss Margery Benson. The pupils of Miss Florence Clough will appear in entirely new numbers and an adagio will be presented by Thelma Stratford and James Watt.

Mrs. G. C. Jones, Hon. John Hart and Mrs. Hart and Mrs. Angus Campbell are the patrons. Miss Betty O'Brien is the general convenor and the committee includes: Mrs. A. H. Stott, Mrs. J. E. Hunter, Misses Margaret Gallier, Daphne Pooley and Rhoda Goward, Messrs. J. T. O'Brien, Frank Mellan, J. A. McLellan and M. Doyle.

A seven-piece orchestra will provide the music until 1 a.m. Reservation must be made at the hotel through the head waiter.

COUNTING TO THIRTEEN

One difference between the good bridge player and the poor one is in ability and willingness to count. Strange as it may seem, few players take the trouble of counting to thirteen. And yet, holding thirteen cards in their own hand and a contract to fulfill, the most elementary procedure calls for a count of the adverse hands.

JACK BENNY NOW PLAYHOUSE STAR

Radio Comedian Has Leading Role in "Trans-Atlantic Merry-Go-Round"

The radio broadcasts of Jack Benny which have delighted millions over the air are a feature of Reliance's "Trans-Atlantic Merry-Go-Round," which brings an all-star cast of screen and radio favorites to the Playhouse Theatre today for a three-day run.

Benny plays a master of ceremonies broadcasting from a palatial ocean liner plying between New York and Europe in this sparkling comedy-drama with music, mystery and romance from the pen of Leon Gordon.

With Nancy Carroll and Gene Raymond, Benny heads a cast including Sydney Howard, who is known as England's Charlie Chaplin; Mitzi Green, Sid Silvers, Frank Parker, the Boswell Sisters, Shirley Blackmer, Ralph Morgan, Shirley Grey, Sam Hardy, Patsy Kelly, William Boyd, Jean Sargent and Jimmie Grier and his orchestra.

Benny's famous radio satire, "Grind Hotel," is included in the broadcasts, and another highlight is the imitations of famous screen stars for which the now grown-up Mitzi Green is noted.

Four new song hits are introduced in this Harry M. Goetz-Edward Small production.

Runyon Picture At the Columbia

"Midnight Alibi." First National's picturization of Damon Runyon's thrilling romance of metropolitan New York of the present day, is scheduled to open at the Columbia Theatre today, with Richard Barthelmess in the stellar role, and Helen Lowell, famous New York stage favorite in an outstanding characterization.

Much in the same tempo as his "Lady for a Day," Runyon has drawn his characterizations in whimsical vein, in a story that carries an unusual romance and many thrills. The unusual friendship that springs up between the proud old aristocrat, Abigail Ardsley, and the young ricketeer, Lance McGowan, who seeks refuge in her secluded mansion when pursued by a rival gang intent on putting him on the spot, dramatizes the spirit of New York as few, if any other stories have done.

The Prescott Kid, a real red-blooded story of the West, is the added attraction. Tim McCoy is the star of the picture, and he has never been so better advantage. Sheila Mannors, one of Columbia's newest beauties, plays opposite the hard-riding colonel. Others in the cast are Allyn Chase, Hooper Atchley, Steve Clark and Harry Todd.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE WILL STAR IN CAPITOL FILM

Lionel Barrymore, who is co-starred with Shirley Temple in "The Little Colonel," which comes tomorrow to the Capitol Theatre, has in the course of a notable career earned the title of "dean of the American screen."

Born of a distinguished line of stage players, he has carried on the high family traditions and transferred them to the screen, bringing to the newer medium his unusual talents.

In "The Little Colonel" he plays the part of an obdurate Kentucky colonel, estranged from his daughter who elopes with a Yankee.

Also a Mickey Mouse cartoon, "Mickey's Service Station," will be shown.

"MISSISSIPPI" OPENS AT DOMINION TOMORROW

Bing Crosby, film's first singer, introduces four brand new Rodgers and Hart tunes, as well as a special arrangement of that ever popular favorite, "Swanee," in his new Paramount film, "Mississippi," which comes tomorrow to the Dominion Theatre.

Starred with W. C. Fields and Joan Bennett, Crosby plays the romantic comedy role of a Northern youth, who was frightened into becoming the dueling terror of the old South.

The plot of "Mississippi" revolves about the character of a bibulous old commodore, W. C. Fields, himself. Listed among its attractions are Queenie Smith, star of the Broadway stage, who makes her debut in this film, and the Cabin Kids.

Also on the same programme is Laurel and Hardy in "The Fixer Uppers."

INDIAN BAND PLAYING IN EMPIRE ROAD SHOW

One of the outstanding stage shows to appear in Victoria this season, the "Hi-Skookum Revue," featuring Chief Little Joe and his musical Redskins, will open a three-day engagement at the Empire Theatre tomorrow.

The chief is a clever musician, heading a stage band composed of a group of full-blooded Nezperce Indians. These boys were drawn from the Indian colleges of the West through their standing in music, and permission was given by the American Government for them to make this tour.

Each of the boys had a college education. In addition to the band, there are several unusual acts of vaudeville, composed of some of the finest singing and dancing talent from screen and stage.

Chief Ti, one of the Indian chiefs with the revue, is not only one of the youngest chiefs of his tribe, but he is the all-American champion war dancer, winning his feathers at

COSTS OF LIVING ARE ON INCREASE

The Provincial Industrial Relations Board will not make revisions of existing minimum wage schedules unless formally requested to do so by groups affected, it was stated at the meeting of the Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council last night, by a member of that body's legislative committee.

The statement was made in respect to a question concerning the rise in the cost of living reported to the council as 25 per cent since the beginning of the year.

Delegates considered the industrial relations board should readjust the minimum wage schedules to conform with the changes in the cost of living as set out in the monthly report of the Department of Labor of the Federal Government.

The council's legislative committee will make further inquiries.

Actress May Talk It Over With Her Ace

LONDON, April 17 (AP).—Mary Lawson, pretty British actress, much more cheerful than she when she announced the breaking of her engagement to Fred Perry two days ago, indicated today everything may be patched up with Britain's No. 1 tennis star after all.

At any rate, Miss Lawson said she "certainly will meet him and talk things over as soon as he returns from America."

DENIES REPUDIATION OF WAR DEBT TO U.S.

LONDON, April 17 (AP).—The House of Commons tonight adopted the budget brought down on Monday by Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, without division.

Chamberlain denied that Britain had "repudiated" her war debt to the United States. Labor members yesterday criticized the absence of any reference to the war debt in the budget speech.

BOTANICAL TALK GIVEN

Dr. H. T. Gussow, Dominion Botanist, Outlines Canada's Need for Garden

Canada's need for a national botanical garden was ably outlined by Dr. H. T. Gussow, Dominion Botanist, who gave an address on botanical gardens in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium, last night. P. R. Leighton officiated as chairman.

To give an address on gardens in the centre of the world's most beautiful garden area was much like carrying coals to Newcastle, the speaker said, but added that his remarks would be chiefly confined to the purposes and need of botanical gardens, of which Canada was not a possessor.

Just as Aristotle was the father of botany, so was the search of primitive people for medicinal plants the forerunner of botanical gardens. Dr. Gussow said. Medical science owed much to the establishment of botanical gardens. Dr. Gussow asserted. Much may be learned from botany of value not only to medical science, but to the commercial world as a whole. By gathering many species of plant life, studying them, and experimenting botanical gardens served a useful purpose in the commercial life of the world, as well as enhancing the beauty of gardens and homes by the introduction of new plants.

FAMOUS GARDEN
The speaker gave a brief outline of the history of Kew Gardens, the most famous of all botanical gardens. They cover 130 acres, have 150 gardens, and forty policemen to testify to the widespread interest that is taken by the public in these gardens," he declared. There were more than 2,000,000 species of plant life at Kew Gardens, and an exhaustive library on botany.

Kew Gardens had been responsible for the widespread use of quinine by their introduction of the plant from South America. Prior to the commercialization of this plant, quinine was a very expensive medicine. This was only one instance, Dr. Gussow stated, of the value both medically and commercially of botanical gardens.

Dr. Gussow gave the cost of maintaining such gardens, and pointed out that Canada might have saved millions of dollars for her wheat growers had she had a botanical garden. The Prairies lost $25,000,000 annually due to wheat rust, he said. It had taken seven years to assemble wheat from various countries of the world, experiment and find three varieties that were almost immune to rust. Shortly these three varieties would be made obtainable to the farmers. Had there been a botanical garden, this work could have been speeded up immeasurably.

NO FLORA INDEX
The first duty of a new country, he contended, was to take stock of its natural resources, "yet we have no complete records of Canada's flora. It is humiliating at times to have to send specimens to other countries for identification of our own flora."

Dr. Gussow suggested the establishment of a chain of botanical gardens across Canada to solve the problem of varied climates, and advocated that the primary objective of a Canadian national botanical garden should be a complete stock-taking of Canadian flora.

His address was concluded by the showing of a number of beautifully colored slides of botanical gardens throughout the Empire.

TWENTY PARTIES TO SEARCH FOR B.C. GOLD

"It is a little difficult to obtain from press statements received up to this time a clear idea of the plans of the Dominion Government. It is to be assumed, however, having regard for the total expenditure provided for and the total number of parties to be put in the field throughout Canada, that the proposal is not simply prospecting, but that it actually involves a broad reconnaissance survey, the results of which later are to be put on permanent record by means of maps.

JUST WHAT B.C. NEEDS

"If this is done, it is just what British Columbia needs. It is what the Government of British Columbia has been asking for. We have been seeking to interest the Federal Government in a general reconnaissance geological survey of that tremendous area lying north of the Canadian National Railway, in order that data may be obtained that will assist explorers and prospectors in searching for and exploiting the mineral wealth of the region.

"We are hoping that our representations on behalf of this Province have appealed so strongly that the idea has been incorporated in a broad plan applicable to the whole of the Dominion. Twenty parties for British Columbia on reconnaissance survey work, say four-mile-to-the-inch mapping, would in a season pretty thoroughly cover an area of 10,000 square miles. This is quite a sizeable section of country. It would give us detailed knowledge of an area of which we know little. It would be of great assistance to prospectors, and it might place us years ahead in the development of the mineral resources of the country.

IS NATIONAL DRIVE

OTTAWA, April 17 (CP).—A national drive for gold with geological survey parties exploring every corner of the country was announced in the House of Commons today by Minister of Mines W. A. Gordon.

Nine hundred men, divided into 180 parties led by qualified geologists, will take the field this summer. They will search for the yellow metal in areas where favorable rock formations exist from the Atlantic to the Pacific and far into the north. The parties are designed as forerunners to prospectors in the mineralized areas.

Northern Canada, the Minister said, held the economic salvation of the country and he believed it would produce enough gold to pay for all the mistakes since Confederation.

The Public Works Bill, considered today by the House, contained an appropriation of $1,000,000 for the gold drive. The provinces will be consulted and the work conducted co-operatively with them.

The following is an approximate list of the parties that will take the field in each Province: Nova Scotia, twelve; New Brunswick, four; Quebec, fifteen; Ontario, thirty; Manitoba, twenty; Saskatchewan, forty; Alberta, eight; British Columbia, twenty; Northwest Territories, ten, and Yukon, five.

The exact areas to be explored have not been determined but this will be decided soon because the for-

Parties fully qualified geologists will be required to supervise the work of main parties and sub-parties. Each party will have in addition either a graduate or senior student in mining and geology from a Canadian university. Many university students in other courses will doubtless apply as laborers.

WILL NOT STAKE CLAIMS

OTTAWA, April 17 (CP).—The 180 parties which will be sent out by the Dominion Department of Mines this summer to study the geology of the sections of Canada likely to produce gold will assist and not compete with the prospectors, Dr. Charles Cammell, Deputy Minister of Mines, said today.

The surveys made by these parties will not be intensive enough to find claims, the Deputy Minister said. Their work will be to provide as in the past, geological data which will give the prospector an accurate lead as to the best localities to search for gold.

CHEAP SOAP-CHIPS WASTE

Short on real soap—skimpy suds make hard rubbing—harsh bleaching alkalies fade colors—soap scum hard to rinse—leaves clothes dingy-looking

CLOTHES SOON GO TO PIECES

PRICES ARE GOING UP! Clothes cost more this year. Can you afford to risk them in cheap soap-chips?

When you're tempted by an over-size box of cheap soap-chips, stop and think. Think of the lack of real soap. Think of the harsh bleaching alkalies. What will they do to your clothes?

Hard rubbing... worn clothes
Thin weak suds mean hard rubbing... hard on you and hard on clothes! Threads "pull" and wear thin. Strong bleaching alkalies fade the color. Free, fatty acids make soap bad-smelling—hard to rinse. Sediment "speckles" the material... settles in seams and hems.

Is it any wonder your clothes soon look gray, worn and old? But do you actually save on soap? No! "Second helpings" are needed to keep up suds. They soon eat up the big cheap chips box.

Compare that wasted soap with good, rich Chipso. Chipso is soapier. Just a handful builds up rich, thick, lively, lasting suds. They soak dirt loose in just fifteen minutes. You don't have to wear clothes thin with hard rubbing.

Yes—Chipso does your hard work for you. Yet Chipso is gentle—no harsh bleaching alkalies to fade the color or weaken material. Get Chipso at your store today. Use it every wash-day. Discover the truth of "clothes washed regularly with Chipso wear months longer."

SCRUB ALL DAY MEND ALL NIGHT

What a mistake—to let cheap soap-chips make you do this!

IT'S CHEAPER TO BUY GOOD SOAP THAN NEW CLOTHES

BILLS..BILLS!
TOWELS..SHEETS..APRONS.
DID WE NEED ALL THESE?

"CAN I HELP IT IF MY LINENS GO TO PIECES?"

BLAME CHEAP SOAP-CHIPS FOR THIS FAMILY QUARREL.—They're to blame for the ruined clothes that it costs good money to replace! Let's hope this wife will soon learn that good safe Chipso protects materials. It makes all your clothes wear longer.

More Soap in Chipso—More Wear in Our Clothes—say women everywhere

"I get more suds out of Chipso," says Mrs. C. R. Benkert, "and they don't die down to scum like cheap chips do. It's so easy, with Chipso, to get clothes clean. I don't even use a washboard. Dirt comes out without hard rubbing. My white clothes are white as snow! Yet I never have trouble with things fading now."

Clothes look brand new
"All our clothes look brand new for a long time," says Mrs. J. L. Gedgey, another pleased Chipso user.

"Sweaters do not shrink—they're soft and fleecy as new. The whole washing method is safer with Chipso. No prolonged soaking to make colors run—no rubbing to twist clothes out of shape. Chipso takes the dirt—and takes it safely."

Quick for dishes—mild on hands
"It's economical to wash dishes with Chipso—a little of this rich soap goes so far in suds," says Mrs. T. B. Curry. "The suds come up instantly and stay up. They rinse easily—leave no odor. And they're so mild on your hands that you know there's nothing harsh in Chipso."

Chipso's richer suds loosen dirt quickly—save hard rubbing

May Repair Surface of Cook Street

If the B.C. Electric Railway Company, Limited, will repair the street surface between its tracks, there is a strong possibility that Cook Street will be improved by the city this year.

Aldermen yesterday afternoon discussed ploughing up, raking, oiling and rolling the street if the company would do its share. Aldermen Luney and Brown and Mayor Legging, together with the executive of the council public works committee, plan to interview the company in the near future.

G. M. Irwin, city engineer, was requested by the council to estimate the cost of replacing wooden blocks with paving on Douglas Street between View and Yates Streets.

The Beautiful Derelict

by Evelyn Wells

CHAPTER XVI

Fleming Stone and Pat Wayne sat in silence for a moment, and then Stone said, "Young Campion is a well set up lad. I took quite a fancy to him."

"Yes, a good boy," said Pat. "He was a chum of Barry's."

"Was he, that is, a sort of handy man about the house?"

"Oh, yes, though I taught him about all he ever knew. But he had a knack of making little things that would really go. I like that sort of thing, too, and we worked together more or less. But he has a besetting sin of carelessness that drives me wild. I can't abide to see fine tools spoiled by misuse."

"Nor I. It is a real pity, and so unnecessary."

Pat nodded his assent.

"I see you have a fine camera," Stone went on. "Did you ever take pictures of the yacht?"

"Yes, but not many, nor good ones," Pat opened a cabinet drawer. "Here are some pictures for you. These are all photographs of the Mad Anthony, taken by an expert photographer. Like him?"

"Indeed, yes; they are magnificent."

And they were. The yacht on the high seas, in a calm, even in a storm (with trick work), and off the beach of Nantucket.

"Any interiors?"

"Yes, but these are mostly the plans of the designer, a great naval architect, who planned the boat."

They showed a number of cubby-holes and even a view below, where Barry received his death blow.

Stone was about to pass this over, but Pat said, "No, let me look at it."

Stone looked at it, too, and said slowly, "Is there any of Campion's work in view?"

Pat rifled over the pictures and selected two or three which showed a few simple bits of Campion's ingenuity, and one rather complicated rack for bottles that looked like a milkman's basket, but was more ornate.

"I say!" and Stone's face lighted up with a gleam of success. "I believe we have it. Have you been over to the yacht yet?"

"No, not to go on board. But they won't let us go on board for a time—not until the yacht is restored to us."

"They'll let me go," Stone said confidently. "And I'll bet you they'll let me take you along with me. And I know the killer."

"You do! Tell me, quick!"

"What would you say to Rodney Campion?"

Owing to Stone's amicable relations with U.S. Attorney Demarest, he had no difficulty in obtaining permission to visit and explore the Mad Anthony, taking with him Inspector Cox and Pat Wayne.

Demarest met his three visitors at New London. Cox and the U.S. Attorney fell into conversation, and Pat Wayne led Stone through some of the yacht's less conspicuous nooks and crannies, each of which had its own definite use.

"Perfect building," Stone said admiringly. "And this yacht is yours now, Mr. Pat?"

"Yes," and Pat sighed. "But it was always communal property. Dan and I gave it to Barry, but we all used it at will. Dan doesn't care quite so much for sailing, but Barry and I were devoted to it. Now it belongs to us, but I doubt if I shall use it much, and Dan probably not at all. We loved that boy, and this boat is full of memories."

At the hatchway Wayne led the way down the steps. He scrutinized the engine and fingered a few of the mechanical parts in a workmanlike way.

"Marvelous gear," he said; "every known new bit of invention, and more, too."

He pulled out a sort of bar, attached at one end, and let it go back slowly.

Stone looked at the bar with interest. He had what is called a photographic memory to such a degree that he was sure this rod or bar was not shown in the photographs he had seen.

"What is it?" he asked.

"The beginning of a bit of invention Barry recently started. It's a sort of self-starter for the motor and when complete can be used from the deck above. The boy planned it entirely, and his work on it was delayed by some supplies that didn't arrive in time. Then he became interested in something else and half forgot about it. I think I'll try to finish it. It's a clever dodge."

They went on looking over the various details of the engine, built by the foremost experts, and Stone expressed surprise that Barry would tamper with the delicate machinery. "He was a delicate mechanician," Pat said simply. "He could

"You collect?" Stone asked.

"No," returned Pat. "We used to, but when Barry grew up, he tired of it, and as a real hobby it doesn't appeal to Dan and me. But you'll find old stamps here and there all over the house. Dan and I have traveled so much that the tourist agencies tried to adopt us, and are constantly sending us circulars and booklets. Fond of Mr. Stone?"

"In my own way. As a young man I made all my duty trips; now I just go where the fancy takes me here and there now and then."

"We must talk over our trips some day. You know the Orient?"

"In spots. But my travels have been mainly on land. Yours, doubtless, have been cruises."

"Both. But cruises please me best. Barry was like me—more so than like his father, in that respect. He and I were planning a tropical cruise in the Mad Anthony. Dan hadn't promised to go, but I think he would have done so. I doubt, though, he'll care to go alone with me. Perhaps, Mr. Stone, we'll talk over possibilities some other time."

It was dark when Inspector Cox's launch dropped Stone and Wayne at Sand Hill. Entering the common room, Stone laid the book he had brought home on a table within sight of Dan Wayne, who gave a sudden start.

"Where'd this come from?" he asked, not knowing Stone had brought it in.

"Brought it from the yacht," the detective answered. "Mr. Pat lent it to me."

"Oh, all right, all right—I beg your pardon for seeming surprised. But it's an old book that I haven't seen for a long time. Where was it?"

"On a library shelf in the cabin of the Mad Anthony. I read it years ago, and I thought I'd like to look it over again."

"Of course, Stone, of course. Look it over, it's well worth your while. We'll have a chat over its Oriental charms some day."

Dan's odd manner passed entirely, and he sat fingering the pages while he talked of other things.

"Find any clues on the yacht?" he asked calmly.

"No," Pat said. "I believe clues are out of date. So few show up nowadays. Thing so, Mr. Stone?"

"I was never much of a one for have made a fortune from his inventions had he chosen to apply himself."

They went on, and in the cabin Stone saw again the framed photograph with its inscription, "Barry, from Jane."

He well remembered when he first saw it; then the names meant nothing to him; now he knew Jane, and almost better still, he felt he knew Barry.

"You like Miss Holt?" Pat asked casually.

Stone, with an equal nonchalance, returned, "In some ways very much, in others, not at all."

"In what ways not at all?" and Pat looked amazed.

"I'm afraid our conversation is more personal than it ought to be, but I'm willing to reply. When she is her own sweet, natural self, I like her exceedingly; but when she apes the ways and manners of others, she is, to me, not so attractive."

"Meaning when she tries to act like the more sophisticated admirer?"

"Yes, or like anyone she desires or envies. Why does she stay here? Her fiancé is dead, her father is not a general favorite, she is not really friendly with Mrs. Van Zandt. She must have hosts of friends of her own age who would be glad to have her visit them."

"There's Rodney Campion; have you forgotten him?"

"Yes, I know he admires her. But is his regard returned?"

"It's hard telling these days. Who can read the hearts of the present generation of young people?" Pat smiled a little. "But I feel that if Rod Campion were to go away there would be small attraction here for Jane Holt."

Inspector Cox and Demarest came along just then and joined the pair in the cabin.

"Found anything?" asked Cox with interest.

"Not a thing," Wayne told him. "I don't see how you investigators know which way to turn next."

"Sometimes we don't," admitted Demarest. "I've been in places where it seemed I'd reached the very end of all probable or possible solutions."

"And yet you won out?" Stone said, smiling.

"In those desperate cases, usually, yes."

"I think," said Cox, in his matter-of-fact way, "that I have learned all I can from this yacht. It's my habit to go over a thing thoroughly and then consider it finished. No matter how long you keep on, you can't draw blood from a turnip. I'm through with my search here, and I'm ready to go. How about the rest of you?"

"I'm ready, but for one thing," Stone declared. "I'd like, Mr. Wayne, to take a book from the shelf, if I may. It's that old Marchesa book, the big blue one. I read it many years ago, and I'd like to run it through again. May I?"

"Most assuredly, Mr. Stone. It's Dan's book, and he'll be glad to talk with you about it. Barry was fond of it, too. All right, then; shall we all go now? Perhaps Mr. Demarest will let us come over here again some day—not Inspector Cox, but the rest of us?"

"At any time," returned the U.S. Attorney. "And if there is any way whatever in which I can be of use to you, just tell me frankly, and depend upon my aid."

A strong breeze was blowing as they made the run home, and as Stone shifted the large book he was carrying, a tiny scrap of paper blew out from it and flew wildly into the white-caps.

"Valuable!" asked Stone, with a glance of apology at Pat.

Wayne laughed and said, "No, indeed. I think it was a postage stamp, probably put in to hold a place."

"You collect?" Stone asked.

"No," returned Pat. "We used to, but when Barry grew up, he tired of it, and as a real hobby it doesn't appeal to Dan and me. But you'll find old stamps here and there all over the house. Dan and I have traveled so much that the tourist agencies tried to adopt us, and are constantly sending us circulars and booklets. Fond of Mr. Stone?"

"I was never much of a one for about, except real, good clues. Then they're worth while."

"But rare."

"Rare as good blue moons or first-class hens' teeth."

Yet, that very night, as Stone sat on his own veranda, hoping between sea and sky to hear a whisper of a hint of a good clue, he heard one—nay, he heard two.

Uncertain at first whether they were good ones or not, he hastened to try them out.

ALLEGES ACT IS BEING VIOLATED

Hours of Labor Rule Said to Have Been Infringed by Lumber Company

An information against the Kapoor Lumber Company of having violated the Hours of Labor Act of the province has been laid and the case will come up for hearing next Wednesday.

The case was called in the Provincial Police court yesterday with Stipendiary Magistrate George Jay presiding.

The information set forth that the company had permitted N. Le Gallais, an employee of the company, to work more than forty-eight hours during one week.

Alan Maclean, departmental solicitor, appeared for the Department of Labor yesterday and asked that an adjournment be taken for one week. This request, which was made at the instance of the Kapoor Company, was granted.

Demented Couple Taken to Asylum

DUNCAN, April 17.—Fired by religious mania, a man and wife, of Somenos, and their five children, ranging in age from nine years to eighteen months, caused considerable excitement in the district at an early hour this morning, when they staged a nudist parade on the Solly-McKinnon Road.

The Provincial Police were called into action by two motorists, who reported the incident at 1:30 o'clock, with the result that the man was taken to the police station and the woman and children to the Cowichan Health Centre. This morning both were certified to be of unsound mind and were taken to the mental hospital at Esquimalt today.

Jane Dixon Says:

GIRL INTERESTED IN ANNEXING A HUSBAND WANTS TO KNOW HOW IT'S DONE

Jane Dixon: What do you think is wrong with my life, and what would you suggest to make it more interesting?

I am twenty-eight years old. Have a fair education.

Good position, that is, steady work, and moderate salary, at a place where I have been employed for years. There is no higher position for me here as far as work goes. There is a chance for a higher salary if salaries are ever increased. Therefore, there is not much to strive for.

I have an even disposition, know how to smile, and do not become easily excited.

My looks are fair, and I have average good taste in clothes, but am not outstanding.

My home surroundings are good, and my friends are always welcome.

I have lots of friends, but none who are particularly close, and I do not get invited out very often.

I live several miles from the centre of the city and do not have a car.

I have no particularly close friends near my home, as I have not always lived in the same section, and not being interested in church, really don't know how to make any.

When I first started to work, I made up my mind that I would rise above just an ordinary clerk and be independent, and now that I have reached that stage I find it is lacking in many ways. What I really would like to do now is to get married, but I am not satisfied to marry just any one who comes along.

Any opportunities I have had to get married were offered at a time when I was not interested, and now that I am, I am not asked.

I cannot even hold a man for any length of time. They are tremendously interested in the beginning and very serious, but they do not seem to stick, even the ones that I would really like to have around.

I am not particularly good at any one thing. I can hold a conversation, play bridge, dance, and enjoy being out in the open in the summer, but am not very good at sports. I have a more or less serious nature, but I don't believe I can change that.

I always go away for my vacation in the summer, and usually make a lot of friends while away, but nothing that lasts. I have the thought in my mind now that (for my own good) I should leave this position that I now have (where there is absolutely no chance to meet presentable young men) and go away for the summer, taking the chance of finding another position in the fall. I have no money other than what I have saved, and that would not last forever. What do you think of this plan?

Meeting new girl friends is not of much use, other than the enjoyment of their own company. I know dozens of girls who are in the same fix, and who haven't even a boy friend to call on to take them to a dance.

I will appreciate your thoughts.—An Interested Reader.

Answer: How can an intelligent girl like you consider for a minute giving up a good position to go husband-hunting?

Don't you know that you are just as liable to turn the most familiar corner on your home street tomorrow and meet your future husband, as you are liable to find him in the densest-populated city or the most romantic pleasure ground?

Don't you know the avenues of pleasure, especially the Summer avenues, are crowded to the curb with girls and women looking for their fate in the form of an attractive and desirable man who is willing to be led to the altar? And that so few of them bag their game that wise women have long since given up this field for the hunt?

As a matter of fact, really wise women don't go husband-hunting at all. They go about their business and let the men do the hunting. They give the time they might be spending on lost motion to self-cultivation, to improving themselves mentally, physically and spiritually. They make every effort to rise and shine in whatever work they are doing. They strive for grace and for charm. They cultivate good cheer, good humor, good friends.

Take your vacation, but go with the idea you will see interesting places, do interesting things, meet interesting people. If you go with the conviction you must find a husband before you money gives out, you will return with an empty pocketbook and a heart as barren as the Gobi Desert.

You did not care to marry when you had the opportunity. Now you are ready for marriage, but there are no bidders. I'm afraid you'll have to make patience a virtue. Love and marriage are not to be turned on and off at will.

If you will start regarding the eligible men you meet as good friends instead of appraising them as possible husbands, your chances for finding love and marriage will increase one thousand per cent.

If you must hunt, hunt for a position that offers more scope for promotion and for expansion. Nothing succeeds like success, even with prospective husbands.

GARDEN FESTIVAL HERE NEXT WEEK

Annual Affair May Become as Prominent as Portland's Yearly Rose Show

Victoria's Garden Festival, which will begin next week, may become as great a tourist attraction as Portland's famous Rose Festival.

According to P. R. Leighton, secretary of the Vancouver Island Horticultural Association, which is sponsoring the festival, in previous years many persons have come over to Victoria especially to see the Spring Flower Show.

Last year as an added attraction to the flower show, ticket holders could visit some of the biggest and best gardens in the city and district. However, these gardens were thrown open to the public on only one day, and many persons complained that they could not possibly see all the beautiful places in so short a time.

TO EXTEND FESTIVAL

So this year the committee in charge of the Spring Flower Show has decided to extend the festival to cover a whole week, with four days to see the gardens, and the last two days for the show. Next year they hope to still further increase the time of the festival.

Ticket holders to the Spring Flower Show, to be held at the Willows on April 26 and 27, will be able to see some thirty beautiful gardens in all situated on Rockland Avenue, Foul Bay Road, York Place, Beach Drive, and in the suburbs.

On Easter Monday they can spend the whole day wandering around the extensive Hatley Park. Special buses will take them out to the beautiful home of Mrs. James Dunsmuir, and, provided the weather holds good, they will be able to picnic by the lagoon, and return home to Victoria in the evening.

CITY HALL HOURS TO CHANGE IN MAY

Instead of having daylight saving time, City Hall employees, from May 13 to September 14, will work from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., the City Council decided yesterday. The present hours are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Alderman Luney considered that the early opening would give those who go to work at 9 a.m. a chance to drop in and pay their bills.

That Body of Yours

(By James W. Barton, M.D.)

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE FLUIDS SURROUNDING BODY TISSUES

Physiologists liken the cells of the body to tiny fish, these cells, like the fish, are only able to act when their surroundings—the fluids in which they exist—are of the right temperature, are alkaline, have the proper amounts of oxygen and other substances within them. The blood is part of this fluid or water system. Thus if anything happens to this fluid or liquid surrounding the cells, then nature exerts certain forces within the body which tend to preserve the amount and the quality of this fluid. For instance, with severe sweating from hard work, an attack of diarrhoea or dysentery, or the loss of blood from an injury could all make a difference to this fluid if nature did not so control the fluids that the body cells are kept well supplied with this life-giving liquid.

Prof. W. B. Cannon, Harvard, in his book, "The Wisdom of the Body," says: "A noteworthy prime assurance against extensive shifts of this fluid is the provision made of sensitive automatic indicators or sentinels whose special work is to set corrective processes in motion to prevent the loss of this fluid immediately there is any slight disturbance in the amount or quality of the fluid. If water is needed thirst warns us, before any change in the blood has occurred and we immediately drink some water. If the blood pressure falls and the necessary oxygen supply may be interfered with, delicate nerve endings in a portion of the blood system send messages to the brain centre controlling blood pressure, and the pressure is raised. If by vigorous muscular movements blood comes back to the heart in great volume so that the heart action might be embarrassed and the circulation checked, again delicate nerve endings are affected and a call goes to the right auricle (the part of the heart receiving this extra amount of used blood) that results in speeding up the heart rate and thus hastening the blood flow.

If the blood becomes less alkaline than it should be and is altered ever so slightly towards an acid condition the sensitive part of the nervous system which controls breathing is at once made active; rapid breathing follows and the lungs quickly pump out the carbonic acid and bring the blood back to an alkaline condition. Truly you have a "friendly force" behind the workings of that body of yours.

GOVERNMENT UNDER FIRE

Hugh Savage Reviews Work Of Legislature in Speech To Constituents

LADYSMITH, April 17.—Criticism of the attitude of the Pattullo Government as tending towards dictatorial legislation, Hugh Savage, M.P.P., addressed a meeting of his constituents here on Monday evening.

The member reviewed at length the financial condition of the Provincial Government. Sinking fund provisions, a fixed charge against revenues, were being neglected to the extent that the Provincial sinking funds were $7,000,000 short since 1923, and the gross debt of British Columbia had increased from $167,000,000 under the former Administration to $177,000,000. This increase was due to the extent of $3,000,000 to November, 1934, to requirements for relief purposes.

Commenting on the Government proposal to spend three million dollars for the new bridge over the Fraser River, Mr. Savage characterized the project as "fishy" in his opinion, and remarked the House had failed to elicit definite information on the proposed structure. Even with the additional proposed borrowing of another three million for road works, there was no hope of commencing the work and wages programme so loudly proclaimed. The speaker doubted that recent financial advances in British Columbia had improved the credit standing of the Province in the eyes of the financial world, and felt that this attitude would be reflected in the attempt to raise loans at a 3 per cent rate of interest.

THE PARAMOUNT PROBLEM

Referring to his activities during the past year in the House, the member stated that he considered the problems of youth as paramount in present-day conditions. He questioned the utility of herding men in relief camps as even a temporary solution of a problem. The atmosphere of hopelessness and frustration in these camps could only produce moral and economic deterioration. Crop after crop of youths were annually thrown upon a world already surfeited with unemployment, and there was the constant danger of their becoming part of the moral debris of the age.

He was anxious to procure a number of youths fresh from high schools for four months this season to assist in clearing trails for fire patrols and forestry work and other activity of this nature under the Forestry Department. The matter was being considered and he hoped to get some tangible results. He advocated sending out small groups of young prospectors after minerals. There was a more systematic chance of finding something of value while engaged in the discipline of self-respecting labor in a health atmosphere.

During the session he had opposed a proposal for the formation of a highway commission for British Columbia on the grounds that it would merely duplicate the functions of the Public Works Department.

PERSONAL CHARITY

Sounding the personal note in connection with his pre-election promise, Mr. Savage said that, apart from actual expenses, the bulk of his sessional indemnity of $1,600 was being given away to help deserving needs. He had in hand preparation of a statement on the matter for public perusal.

The speaker concluded by the statement on the youth problem: "If the people will not assume their responsibilities as citizens in a democracy, then we must take the consequences."

T. Collinge was chairman of the meeting.

Drill Display Is Given at Ganges

SALTSRING ISLAND, April 17.—The annual Spring display of gymnastics and drill took place in the schoolroom of Formby House, Ganges. At the invitation of the headmistress, Mrs. Oxenham, several parents were present and witnessed the exhibition carried out by twenty-four of the pupils. In every respect the performance was excellent and the children, with their instructor, Mr. Leslie Jenkins, were heartily congratulated on their achievement.

The two silver cups, presented by the school, were awarded to senior competitors, Tresham Bradfield and Constance Oxenham, respectively. Silver medals, in the junior division, went to Ormold Springfield and Heather Hoole. The three special silver medals were presented by Col. A. B. Snow as extra awards, to Joyce Robinson, Billy Scoones and Margaret Scoones. Following the display, Mrs. Oxenham entertained the parents and pupils to supper.

Among those present were Mrs. Price, Major and Mrs. A. R. Layard, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Scoones, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Baker, Mrs. H. Johnson, Mrs. Charlesworth, Mrs. A. R. Price, Mr. and Mrs. L. Cropper, Mrs. Cecil Springfield, Mrs. Max. Calthrop, Mr. and Mrs. Harvard Price, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Hoole, Mr. and Mrs. P. Lowther, Mrs. D. Hamilton, Col. A. B. Snow, Messrs. H. A. Robinson and R. C. King and others.

LIBRARY SYSTEM FULLY EXPLAINED

Dr. Helen Stewart Addresses Parents and Teachers at Duncan—Gymnasium Fund Growing

DUNCAN, April 17.—Dr. Helen Stewart addressed a meeting of the Duncan Parent-Teacher Association at the K. of P. Hall on Tuesday evening on the regional library project, displaying a number of books illustrating the type of reading in circulation in the Fraser Valley, where the regional library is in operation, and answered a number of questions asked by an interested audience.

At a brief business meeting, H. E. Blanchard reported progress on the gymnasium fund canvass, and mentioned the plans for raising the quota set themselves by the P.T.A., which plans included a lecture on a motor trip to Mount Sinai over the traditional route of the Israelites, given by W. M. Gibson; a two-piano recital by Miss Gwen Harper and Edgar Holloway, talented artists from Victoria, who will appear on May 13, and the University Players, who are producing an Ibsen play, "Hedda Gabler," early in May.

Mrs. J. Dunkeld was elected to represent the P.T.A. at the annual meeting of the Health Centre on April 30.

Hatchery Under New Supervision

LAKE COWICHAN, April 17.—The Dominion Government Hatchery is now under the directorship of Dr. Clemens, of the Pacific Biological Station, Nanaimo. Dr. Clemens pays monthly visits to the hatchery.

BRITISH-ISRAEL MEETING

There was a good attendance at the Monday evening meeting of the Marigold Branch of the British-Israel Association. W. R. Woods, the president, conducted a short business period, when Mrs. W. R. Woods and J. Edge were elected as additional members on the executive. As the next meeting night would fall on a public holiday, May 6, it was decided to hold the meeting on Monday, April 29, at the usual hour. Following the business, Mrs. S. H. Brake gave an interesting address on "The Parables," and answered questions with regard to different passages of Scripture.

BARGAIN FARES TO POINTS EAST

Canadian Railways Offer Return Tickets at a Cent Per Mile From British Columbia

WINNIPEG, April 17.—An early Summer vacation bargain to Eastern Canada will be offered by the railways between May 17 and 30, according to an announcement made today by Joseph B. Parker, secretary of the Canadian Passenger Association, Western Lines.

The bargain fares will apply from British Columbia to all stations in Eastern Canada from Sault Ste. Marie, Sudbury, Capreol, Cochrane, Windsor, Sarnia and East. Stopovers will be permitted at Port Arthur, Armstrong and East. The tickets will be good for thirty days in addition to date of sale.

Apart from the 1-cent-per-mile rates, good in day coaches only, the roads will also offer tickets at 11-4 cents per mile, good in tourist sleepers on payment of tourist berth rate and 11-2 cents per mile, good in standard sleepers and parlor cars on payment for accommodation furnished.

As no tourist sleepers are operated east of Montreal, the standard sleeping berth will apply for those wishing sleeping-car accommodation.

"What is the reason," asked a gallant captain of a young lady, "that men never kiss each other, while women waste a world of kisses on each other?" "Because," was the reply, "men have something better to kiss and women haven't!"

RESOLUTION PASSED FOR CONDEMNATION

compulsory military service March 16, was taken at a private sitting.

VOTING SURPRISE

The surprise of the voting was the assent of Poland, whose Foreign Minister had raised vigorous objections to the resolution yesterday, and the falling into line of Turkey and the neutral states. Those members of the council voting for the resolution were Great Britain, France, Italy, Russia, Poland, Australia, Czechoslovakia, Mexico, Spain, Argentina, Portugal, Chile and Turkey. Denmark is the only other member of the council.

The sanction committee under the resolution will, in particular, define the economic and financial measures which might be applied should, in future, a state, whether a member of the League of Nations or not, endanger peace by a unilateral repudiation of its treaty obligations.

MEMBERS OF COMMITTEE

Members of the committee, in addition to Canada, are Britain, France, Italy, Russia, Poland, Yugoslavia, Hungary, Spain, Holland, Chile, Portugal and Turkey. In each case the assent of the Government concerned is necessary for the appointment.

SOME STARTLING RUMORS

BERLIN, April 17 (CP-Havas).—This capital was the centre tonight of a series of startling rumors following condemnation of Germany by the League of Nations Council for violation of the rearmament clauses of the Treaty of Versailles. General opinion was there would be a brusque retaliatory gesture by Chancellor Adolf Hitler, and the form it would take was the subject of various conjectures. It was variously rumored, although in each case, without confirmation, that:

Chancellor Hitler would now denounce the whole of the Versailles Treaty.

Germany would break off diplomatic relations with Britain, France and Italy, which framed the resolution of condemnation voted today by the League council.

Germany would admit no further restrictions on its sovereignty, and would disregard the demilitarized left bank of the Rhine.

MAY HAVE REFERENDUM

A more plausible report was that Der Fuehrer would call for a nation-wide referendum to show the world the German people were behind him in his international policies.

In Nazi circles the League's decision came as an overwhelming surprise.

Newspapers tonight contented themselves with attacking the Geneva decision and those who participated in it. Official circles maintained silence. It was intimated, however, that passage of the resolution constituted a serious obstacle to the return of the Reich to the League and to the favorable development of the European situation.

Until a few days ago Germany had regarded France as isolated in its determination formally to censure the Reich for its treaty violation. Britain was viewed as the German spokesman at the Stresa conference and the League meeting, and to the last the Germans could not quite believe that the resolution would be passed.

STRONG LANGUAGE

Berlin newspapers indulged in unusually strong language in reporting and commenting on the vote. "Geneva Sanctions Lie," the Boersen Zeitung, leading financial paper, said in a big headline, and the words "hypocrisy," "provocation" and "warning" marked press comment.

Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet Union Foreign Affairs Commissar, was called by the Boersen Zeitung, "that anarchist who threw his bomb into the League council meeting." The League, it added, "submitted to the will of the Stresa powers."

Sir John Simon, British Foreign Secretary, also was the target of bitter comment for having disappointed German hopes that he would oppose the vote.

DEAF? DON'T LOSE HOPE! . . .

Dr. Edward Kolar, M.D., said: "Aurine helped me. I had given up as hopeless. I can faithfully recommend it to all ear sufferers." No matter how severe your deafness or how noisy are a few drops of Aurine in each ear is sure to help you.

R. P. Maxwell, Deputy Sheriff, says: "Have just finished my first bottle, glad to state I can now hear my watch tick. Today was the first time I heard the church bell ring in two years. Stop worrying; use Aurine. Enjoy the peace of mind that so many others have. At all leading druggists."

At the French village of Dannes a fine of six francs has just been paid in the matter of a dog which was not on the leash (as it should have been) on an afternoon in February, 1906. The owner died in 1911, but his son had only now been served with the demand. One had not thought of it as a use for posterity that it might pay our dog fines.

FIRST 100% PURE PARAFFIN-BASE OIL

from Western Crudes!

TRITON has these definite advantages over "Eastern" or "Western" Motor Oils

1. LONGER LIFE
2. REDUCES MOTOR WEAR
3. FORMS LESS CARBON
4. FORMS LESS SLUDGE
5. MORE STABLE IN USE

EVERY TRITON advantage has been proved by over 250,000 miles of stock car road runs, and by months of exhaustive laboratory tests and comparisons.

In one of these tests a car was driven 60,133 miles in 60 days with TRITON motor oil. Its cylinders and pistons were measured before and after the run and the wear found to be less than one-half of normal for that distance!

A "dynamometer" engine, run in a series of 1000 mile tests showed 22% less wear with TRITON than with high-grade "Eastern" oil, and 43% less wear than with high-grade "Western" oil!

Thousands of miles run with popular makes of cars at Ascot Speedway, comparing performance of leading brands of oils, showed that TRITON forms less carbon, less sludge, has longer life, and is more stable in use.

Now thousands of TRITON users are enjoying these same money-saving results.

Made by the Propane Solvent Process

TRITON'S amazing qualities are made possible by Union's patented PROPANE solvent process, which removes all undesirable low-grade, low-gravity materials from the finished oil—leaving in TRITON only 100% pure paraffin-base material!

Costs No More

TRITON costs no more than high-grade "Eastern" oils. Sold in sealed tamper-proof cans for your protection at all Union Service Stations and hundreds of independent dealers throughout Western Canada.

Make Three Months' Test

Drain out the old oil from your crankcase, flush well and refill with TRITON. Use TRITON for three crankcase changes. Note how, with each successive filling during the test, you get improved engine performance. This is because TRITON tones up your motor, helps to clean out previously collected sludge, permits the rings to function properly and increases general motor efficiency.

Start today. Get TRITON wherever you see the big blue and white TRITON Banner.

Halifax Captures Allan Cup From Port Arthur in Two Straight Games

Wolverines Beat Bearcats to Lift Canadian Laurels

Seaport City Wins Historic Trophy for First Time in History After Great Struggle on Home Ice — Ron Hudson Stars — Earns Trip to Olympic Games Next Year

By GEORGE C. MURRAY
Canadian Press Staff Writer
HALIFAX, April 17 (CP).—This seaport city drank from the Allan Cup for the first time in her colorful history tonight, after her Wolverines defeated Port Arthur Bearcats, 4-3, to make it "two straight" in the Canadian Senior amateur hockey championship finals.

With the battered silverware and the Dominion title, Jack Conn's valiant pack won the right to represent Canada at the 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin, and even those wanted by professional teams indicated they would shun contracts to make the trip.

To blonde Ron Hudson, who came from South Porcupine, Ont., four years ago, went the honors for tonight's triumph. With a record of having scored in every play-off game since the Wolves started against Charlottetown in February, the brilliant right-winger drove home two goals for Halifax in the sixth period.

Mickey McGlashen and Owen Lennon, his mates on the Wolverine first string of snipers, accounted for the other two while Port Arthur's scores came from the sticks of Bill Thompson, Jimmy Hagarty, and Norm Friday.

CROWD GOES WILD
More than 5,000 fans went wild over the victory. And they didn't forget the brave stand of the "home brew" team from the West which had gone down to defeat before an outfit collected over the country in the eight years since Conn first took a liking to the trophy.

Before the final bell the crowd was rooting for Milton, Hagarty and Thompson, even when they threatened to tie the count. A little over confident after Monday night's 3-2 win, the Wolverines were disorganized in the scoreless opening period tonight, but in the middle session they struck the stride that had carried them over Montreal Royals in the Eastern championship battle.

McGlashen, curly centre who shared honors with Hudson and Ferguson in the series, snapped in the first goal on a cool pass from Defenceman Frankie Graham.

INCREASES LEAD
Less than two minutes later he gave Hudson the rubber for the drive that put Halifax two up, and it was not until after the halfway mark that the Bearcats clicked.

Then Sinclair took the disc from a mix-up in front of the Halifax cage and slipped it to Thompson. The steady right-winger beat "Daddy" Bubar for Port Arthur's first goal, only to see the sting taken out of it two minutes later by Hudson's next raid on nineteen-year-old Jack Nash.

The Wolves lay back as the third period opened but were stirred to action when the Bearcats scratched around Bubar until Hagarty's shot hit the cord.

Referees: Clarence Campbell, Edmonton, and George Foster, Ottawa.

Summary
First Period—No score. Penalties: Lavigne, Milton. Shots stopped: Eubar 12, Nash 13.
Second Period—1, Halifax, McGlashen (Graham), 1:14; 2, Halifax, Hudson (McGlashen), 3:07; 3, Port Arthur, Thompson (Sinclair), 11:52; 4, Halifax, Hudson (Lennon), 13:04. Penalty: Hagarty. Shots stopped: Bubar 4, Nash 11.

Third Period—5, Port Arthur, Hagarty (Deacon), 3:46; 6, Halifax, Lennon, 10:50; 7, Port Arthur, Friday, 16:42. Penalties: None. Shots stopped: Bubar 5, Nash 11.

side to oppose England at Headingley May 6. The match will form part of the King's Silver Jubilee celebrations.

B.C. SHUTTLE STARS GIVEN HIGH RATING

Dick Birch and Eric Leney Well Ranked—Margaret Taylor on Top

MONTREAL, April 17 (CP).—Ranking of the ten leading Canadian men badminton players and the eight leading women stars have been compiled by Robert D. Here's the record My Wally has set in the South: Santa Barbara, July, 1934, best of breed; Santa Cruz, July, 1934, best of breed; San Francisco, August, 1934, best of breed; Sacramento, August, 1934, best of breed; Oakland, October, 1934, best of breed; San Diego, January, 1935, best of breed, best sporting dog; second best of dogs in show; Phoenix, March, 1935, best of breed; Tucson, March, 1935, best of breed, best sporting dog, and second best in show; San Francisco March, 1935, best of breed, best sporting dog, second best in show in all breeds; San Bernardino, March, 1935, best of breed, best sporting dog, best of all breeds, defeating over 400 dogs.

PARENT CLUB MAKES READY

Beacon Hill Lawn Bowlers To Inaugurate Season on Good Friday

By W. H. YOUHILL
Tomorrow afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, the official opening of the twenty-sixth season of the Victoria Lawn Bowling Club will usher in that which, from present appearances, should prove the most successful in the history of the parent club of the Victoria district.

During the past couple of seasons, because of the fact that the greens had been in use for so many years, and during which the great majority of the games in the district were staged thereon, members of the club were required to be content with a bowling surface that did not measure up to their desires, to say nothing of the expectations of visitors who had come to look upon the Victoria club as a model of efficiency. However, President J. E. Johnson, feels satisfied that the great amount of work put in during the winter will result in placing at the disposal of the bowlers a set of greens unsurpassed in any part of the Coast district.

Providing the weather man is in good humor, there should be a large turnout on Good Friday. Because of the dullness of the weather during the past couple of weeks, it has been deemed advisable to forego the usual morning games, which have been so attractive to the early risers, and play will be confined to the rinks competition in the afternoon.

MANY NEW MEMBERS
Secretary Baxandall reports he has already received fifteen new applications for membership, and with all the old stand-bys still on the roster, it looks as though the list will have to be closed if very many more decide to throw in their lot with the club.

One of the features which will prove popular with members this year is the increased parking space, which has been extended to accommodate fully double the number of cars as heretofore. For this the club is indebted to the City Council, a courtesy which is fully appreciated by those in charge of the destinies of the organization, as well as the general membership.

As yet the programme for the season has not been fully mapped out, and it is quite likely that when the official announcement is made there will be found many changes from former schedules. A special effort is to be put forward, however, to create interest in the game among those who have not as yet felt the lure that draws to the greens so many enthusiasts who have acquired a fondness for the game, and who appreciate the beneficial effects of an afternoon spent in the glorious climate of Victoria among congenial companions.

SATURDAY GALA DAY
On Saturday afternoon, while President Johnson will be in attendance at the Victoria West greens, at the official opening of the season under the auspices of the Greater Victoria Lawn Bowling Association, Vice-President J. S. Atkins will be at the helm, and under his guidance a gala day will be held. To this are invited all former bowlers now resident in the district, as well as others who may enjoy a pleasant afternoon in the outdoors, even though they may be present only in the capacity of spectators.

As there has been in progress during the past few weeks a revision of the by-laws of the club, which are being brought up to date, a special meeting of the membership of the club will be held on the evening of Friday, April 26, when the new laws will be considered and approved.

Falkirk Defeated

GLASGOW, April 17 (CP).—Falkirk's hopes of remaining in the Scottish League First Division next year were considerably dimmed today when the Fir Park squad was defeated by Celtic, 7-3.

Falkirk, in last position, is four points behind St. Mirren.

Canadian Basketball Series Will Open Here Next Tuesday

VANCOUVER, April 17 (CP).—Assumption College, of Windsor, and Victoria Blue Ribbons will meet in Victoria, April 23, in the first of the three-out-of-five game series for the Canadian amateur basketball title, Walter Hardwick, British Columbia representative of the Canadian Amateur Basketball Association, announced tonight.

The second game is scheduled for April 25 and the third April 27. If necessary further games will be played April 29 and 30.

LOCAL CAGERS TAKE SECOND GAME 61-33 AFTER FINE DISPLAY

Victorians Prove Far Too Good for Invaders and End Series in Straight Games Without Much Trouble — "Red" Martin Is High Scorer — Muzz Patrick Gets Into Tussle

sters from Winnipeg, but a sympathetic Victoria audience gave the hopelessly outclassed visitors all the encouragement they could. However, it must be said for the Toilers that they battled gamely against great odds, and never once quit trying to make things interesting for the 1,500 fans who made their way to the Willows to witness the final.

MARTIN TOPS SCORERS
Albert "Red" Martin, brilliant forward, had a great night, and led the Ribbons' scorers with seventeen points. He was closely followed by the clever tip-off ace, Art Chapman, who caged fifteen points. Doug Peden, elusive and tricky guard, sunk five field goals and a free shot to gather in a total of eleven points, and "Porky" Andrews, young "rookie" who has graduated to the starting line-up, dropped home five goals for ten points.

Bruce Dadds, survivor of the fatal airplane crash on the last day of March, 1933, which brought death to two of the Toilers' stars, led the visitors' scoring brigade with fourteen points. He caged six field goals, mostly from long range, and two foul shots. Bobbie Hampton dropped home five well-earned points for the losers. L. Phillips caged an even half dozen, while Vic Driver and Bobbie Wallace completed the Winnipeg scoring by getting two points apiece.

Muzz Patrick, who starred on the Ribbons' line-up when they annexed the Dominion title in 1932, celebrated his return to local cage circles after being in the East. The tall and good-looking son of Lester Patrick, manager of the New York Rangers hockey squad, spent four minutes on the floor in the final half. Victoria fans gave him a great hand as he left the floor.

Vic Driver, veteran forward of the visitors, who played with his left leg well covered in tape because of injuries, worked hard, and when he went to the bench late in the initial half the fans gave him a big hand.

FINISH WITH SUBS
Victoria Blue Ribbons used their regular starting line-up for the whole of the initial half, and the first ten minutes of the final stanza. In the remainder of the fixture they used a number of their substitutes, and at one time pulled Andrews, Martin and D. Peden for Muzz Patrick, Joe Ross and Johnny Craig.

Play opened fast, with the Winnipeg Toilers looking like a different team from that which went down to an overwhelming defeat in the first game Monday evening. They took the lead in the fixture when R. Hampton tossed home a field basket in the first fifteen seconds. Albert "Red" Martin evened the count seconds later, but the visitors went out in front again.

Female Golf Star Is Professional

MISS JOYCE WETHERED

FOREMOST among British women golfers and one of the world's best, Miss Joyce Wethered (above), has accepted an offer to tour the United States this summer, playing a series of exhibition matches. The plans call for a substantial payment for her appearances, which would automatically class her as a professional. Her status has been reported under a cloud for some time, however, in view of her position as manager of a sporting goods store in London.

when Hampton sunk his second basket of the fixture.

"Porky" Andrews squared the count at 4-4, and then Hampton scored his third successive basket to give the visitors the lead for the third time in the game. Doug Peden was fouled in the act of shooting and scored once for the strip, and seconds later Art Chapman made it 7-6, and Victoria Ribbons were out in front for the first time.

From this stage on, the Ribbons' started to "go to town," and dropped home field goals in quick succession and began to pull away from the visitors with comparative ease. With seven and a half minutes gone and the score standing 18-8 for the locals, Toilers called time out, the only one during the game.

In the remaining portion of the initial half the visitors dropped home six points and the Ribbons scored thirteen, and when the breather arrived the score stood 31-14 for the locals.

RIBBONS CLICK
Clicking in championship form and shooting with deadly precision, the Ribbons ran in twenty-four points in the first ten minutes of the final session, and the Toilers replied with five points.

In the final quarter of the game, Winnipeg Toilers ran in thirteen points, seven more than the Ribbons. Dadds sunk three beautiful long shots in this final assault and Hampton scored twice.

With three minutes remaining to be played the Ribbons tossed the ball around on instructions from the bench, making no attempt to add to their score.

PRaises SQUAD
Coach J. L. Sinclair, of the Toilers, after the game offered no alibi. "The best team won and the Ribbons in my opinion, are as good as any team that has ever represented the West," he said. "I look for them to again wear the title from the East. Our boys would not get by their defence, and the superior height of the Ribbons was too much for us. They undoubtedly would have put up a better showing if they were two or three inches taller, but the Ribbons are really a great team with plenty of speed, and their height will tell in the finals with Assumption College boys."

In the preliminary game, Kingham-Gillespie defeated Fernwood Merchants, 26-19. The winners led 9-8 at the rest interval. The teams: Kingham-Gillespie—R. McConnell (5), Edge (4), Turner (8), Anderson, Phillips (3), Burgess (1), Barbours (3), Bale and A. McConnell.

Fernwood Merchants—Denstad (3), Passmore (9), Noel, Taylor (2), Hughes (1), Wilson, Thomas, Price (4), and Vout.

B.C. Chess Meet Billed to Open On Good Friday

British Columbia's chess masters will stage their annual tournament to decide the championship of the province during Easter week, play starting on Good Friday at the headquarters of the Vancouver Chess Club, 215 Empire Building, Vancouver. The congress will start off with a general meeting of the B.C. Chess Federation in the morning, and it is expected that the first round of the tourney will get under way before noon. It is an open event, and chess players throughout the province are welcome to compete for the new trophy. The present British Columbia champion is C. F. Miller, of the Vancouver Chess Club, who has held the title for the past three years. Prospective entrants should get in touch with C. F. Goodman, secretary of the Vancouver Chess Club.

FINAL TO BE HELD TODAY AT UPLANDS

Mrs. Jackson and Mary Mackenzie-Grieve to Meet For Golf Crown

A seasoned campaigner and a youthful shotmaker, who crashed the spotlight last year by lifting the city crown, will meet this afternoon for the women's championship of the Uplands Golf Club. Mrs. E. Jackson, tournament medalist and defending titleholder, will battle Miss Mary Mackenzie-Grieve over the eighteen-hole distance for the title. In yesterday's semi-finals Mrs. Jackson accounted for Mrs. A. Dowell, 3 and 1, after an interesting match, while Mary Mackenzie-Grieve gained a close decision over Dorothy Fletcher on the last green, 1 up.

Mrs. E. M. Cuppage and Mrs. B. M. Clifford will meet today for the "B" class honors. The former reached the last bracket by beating Mrs. E. Watson, 3 and 1, and the latter took Mrs. E. F. Nickson into camp via a similar score.

CHAMPIONSHIP
Semi-Final
Mrs. E. Jackson defeated Mrs. A. Dowell, 3 and 1.

MAJOR GENERAL GERHARD CORNELIUS WALRAVE, Famous Fortress Builder

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON
The Road to Ruin—The Mamore-Madeira Railway, about 200 miles long, is situated in the Territory of Acre, which formerly belonged to Bolivia. When it was awarded to Brazil in 1903, the latter country undertook to build a railroad across the seething jungle, to allow Bolivia an outlet to the Atlantic. Several companies went bankrupt trying to build it, until an American financier of York, Pa., took over the job on a cost plus basis.

The first five miles of rail were laid at a cost of 10,000 lives, literally requiring a life for each cross tie laid. In their progress through the jungle, fever, heat, beri beri, quicksands and poisonous insects continued to decimate the crew of laborers. The loss of life was so great, that ninety per cent of the lumber was imported from Formosa, half ways around the world, although virgin forests were at the right of way. The largest order of victims is unknown, but it is safe to assume that it justifies the reputation of having "each cross tie resting upon a human skull."

"Do Away With Excess Weight"—In exactly one year, Lawrence Mack, of Detroit, reduced his weight 123 pounds without dieting or exercising. On April 14, 1933, Mack was so heavy he couldn't sleep in an ordinary bed, couldn't dress himself, and had great difficulty in walking. His weight was 328 pounds, and doctors gave up hope for him if he grew heavier. Then, he spent some time studying every medical book he could find dealing with overweight and obesity, he experimented with harmless mineral combinations, and before long had a combination that produced real results. On April 14, 1934, Mack's doctors weighed him again. To their astonishment, he tipped the scales at 205-123 pounds lighter than a year before.

DRAW RELEASED FOR B.C. AMATEUR GOLF MEET

Select Field Will Tee Off Tomorrow At Colwood Course

Strong Outside Entry List Received for Annual Tournament Which Opens at Popular Local Links—Post Entries Are in Order—Three Seattle Players Seeking Crown

Another select field will go in search of the British Columbia amateur golf crown, vacated this year by R. L. "Dick" Moore, young Vancouver star, at the Royal Colwood Club tomorrow morning, when a somewhat small, but choice contingent, will start off in the thirty-six-hole qualifying round of the annual classic. The comparatively small local entry was a surprise to officials, who expected to receive several more today, with post-entries being accepted. However, those in charge of the tournament are more than satisfied with the outside list, which includes three from across the border, all of them from Seattle. Vancouver will be sending about twenty smart club-swingers, "h hopes of taking the title back to the Mainland. One of the big favorites will be the long-hitting Stan Leonard, of

Glen Oaks Club, Vancouver, runner-up to Moore last year, and a former champion. Leonard has been tuning up his game during recent weeks and should go a long way in regaining the title he once held. In the thick of it also will be young Ken Lawson, Uplands Club, present city monarch, and a lad who likes competitive golf at the long- and well-bunkered Colwood links. Then there is Bob Morrison, long-driving Uplands shotmaker; Harold Brynjolfson, also of Uplands, who once held the honors; Jimmy Todd, ace out-paw of the Victoria Golf Club; Dave Randall, Sandy Marlin, and a flock of other dangerous threats from Vancouver. From Seattle comes Ed Greenway, a two-handicap player; J. Ketcham and R. W. Mastick. Draw follows: 9:00 and 1:00—S. Leonard (G.O.) and J. Todd (V.); 9:05 and 1:05—K. Lawson (U.) and E. ## MCCREADY IS SECURED FOR MAIN EVENT

Canadian Pachyderm Signed To Meet "King Kong" Cox Saturday

Kingpin of Canadian pachyderms, Earle McCready, Montreal grappler, was yesterday secured by Promoter Fred Richardson for the top spot of the weekly squirm card, Saturday evening, at the Tillicum gymnasium. McCready, making his first Victoria appearance, will meet the rugged and colorful Ted "King Kong" Cox, Lodi, California, exponent of the grunt and groan pastime, in the eight-ten-minute round main event. Former British Empire Games champion, McCready is a school teacher who has cast off the robes of a scholastic profession to enter the professional wrestling game. In the grappling game the 218-pound Montrealer has met with phenomenal success and has chalked up victories over many of the top-ranking heavyweights in the wrestling business.

COX TO GRAPPLE
"King Kong" Cox, colorful Californian, is rated as one of the toughest and toughest pachyderms on the Pacific Coast at the present time. Only last week he flattened Count George Zaryoff, agile and clever grappler, who has shown here on two previous occasions.

With the main event, one of the best lined up here for many a day, all lined up, Promoter Richardson was yesterday angling for two leading heavyweights, for the semi-windup position.

English Jockey Dies From Fall; Rode Thomond II

CHELTHAM, England, April 17 (CP).—The English jockey, one of England's foremost steeplechase jockeys, died here today as a result of injuries received in a fall in the Ledbury Steeplechase last Wednesday.

He received a bad fall when riding the 2 to 1 favorite, Gwelo, and his spine was fractured. Speck has often competed in the Grand National Steeplechase, and in the last renewal of the great race three weeks ago, finished third on Thomond II. The season before last he placed third among winning jockeys, with forty-eight victories.

Zeke Bonura Leads Assault on Rowe as White Sox Score Win

Two Doubles and a Single by Heavy-Hitting First Sacker Sends "Schoolboy" Down to 7-6 Defeat—Yankees Beaten Again—Cincinnati Trims Pirates—Gehrig Hits Homer

AMERICAN LEAGUE
DETROIT, April 17 (AP).—Schoolboy Rowe, accepting a chilly opening day mound assignment, met a red hot assignment as Zeke Bonura led the Chicago White Sox on a wild hitting spree to set the champion Tigers down, 7 to 6.
Bonura led the Sox's ten-hit rampage against the schoolboy, with two doubles and a single. Vernon Washington, Indianapolis rookie, making his first appearance in right field for the Chicago team, followed Zeke with two hits, both singles, but they both counted for runs.
"Goose" Goslin, displaying mid-season batting form, almost pulled the schoolboy out of the hole as he lashed out a single, a double and a home run, to account for five of Detroit's six runs.
Batteries—Jones, Wyatt and Sewell; Rowe and Cochrane.

Senators Beat A's
WASHINGTON, April 17 (AP).—The Washington Senators uncorked a savage first inning bombardment before President Roosevelt, their "good luck" fan, here to do to win their delayed American League baseball inaugural with Philadelphia's Athletics, 4-2.

Punching out singles in rapid order to score three runs and adding another counter in the second inning, the Senators thrilled 21,000 spectators by their quick assault, that the A's were never able to equal.
Jimmy Fox, the former first baseman, starting his first season behind the plate, was off to a fine start in the home run derby with a long drive into the left field bleachers in the eighth inning that scored Wallace Moses ahead of him, with Philadelphia's only runs. Jimmy also cracked out a single and had a perfect fielding mark.

Yanks Lose Again
NEW YORK, April 17 (AP).—Bing Miller's pinch hit with two on base in the tenth, gave the Red Sox their second straight victory over the Yankees, 4-3, today. Lou Gehrig belted his first home run of the season, with two out, in the last half of the tenth.

Batteries—Rhodes, Walberg and R. Ferrell; Ruffing and Dickey.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
PITTSBURGH, April 17 (AP).—The Cincinnati Reds rang in the baseball season in the Steel City today with a series of base hits in the closing innings that wiped out the Pirates' early lead and gave the invaders a 7 to 4 triumph. Approximately 10,000 cold weather fans shivered through the opening day encounters.
The Reds got under way in the sixth when Myers beat out a tap to the left of the plate. Byrd popped to Lavagetto, Riggs dropped a single in right, and both runners moved up. After Bottomley had rolled out to Suhr, Hafey slammed out a triple over centre to send in the first two counts.

COAST LEAGUE
Los Angeles returned to winning form yesterday as manager Jack Leivell's league leading baseball team hammered out an 8 to 5 victory over Seattle, to even the series at one game each. The Angels suffered their first defeat of the season at the hands of the Indians yesterday, 3 to 0.
Behind fine pitching by Willie Ludolph, Oakland defeated the visiting San Francisco Missions, 5-0, to strengthen its position as contender for top position in the Coast League race.
Ludolph was effective throughout, forcing the visitors to pop out frequently or be content with scratch hits.
Hollywood defeated the Sacramento Solons, 4-1, outlasting them two to one and playing errorless ball.

Scoring two runs in the ninth, the San Francisco Seals snatched a 10 to 9 victory from Portland after the Beavers had taken the lead in their half of the last frame.
Jimmy Zinn's single off Davis' glove scored Norbert for the winning tally after Norbert had singled to score Powers and tie up the count.

BISHOP LLOYD IS RE-ELECTED

Will Head Esquimalt Ratepayers' Association for Another Year

In recognition of his active services last year, Bishop George E. Lloyd was re-elected president of the Esquimalt Ratepayers' Association by acclamation last night.

Those named to the executive were: Charles Halthwaite, John Wright, Major A. G. Piddington, Adam McBeath, C. Clark, Richard Dunn, James Ritchie, P. J. Neil, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Margaret Nicol and Mrs. E. Neil. Councilors T. Harry Hodgson and P. G. Eaton, School Trustee Major G. Sisman and Police Commissioner George Kinch will also act on the executive. A secretary will be chosen at a later date.

A resolution was passed pledging support to Councilors Hodgson and Eaton.

COUNCILLORS SPEAK

The councillors spoke briefly, with the former producing a statement that he said he had received from the Municipality of Surrey, stating "no fully qualified civil engineer, or British Columbia land surveyor, in the permanent employment of the municipality." Mr. Hodgson then reminded the gathering that at a recent meeting of the Esquimalt Council he had been called a "liar" when he maintained the Municipality of Surrey had no engineer.

The speaker charged the council with a mild form of dictatorship, and urged ratepayers to attend the next council meeting.

POLICE SYSTEM

Bishop Lloyd intimated during the evening that he would favor either the Provincial police, or the B.C.M.P., taking over the policing of the municipality. He previously referred to the presence of the Esquimalt police at the last council meeting, and the invitation to leave the council chamber, given by police to Councilor Hodgson and a number of delegates from the association.

Membership of the association now stands at 141, Bishop Lloyd announced, and called on the gathering to increase this number. He urged members to hold house meetings and encourage non-members to attend.

PIGEON RACING

The Victoria and District Racing Club held its second old-bird sweep recently. One hundred and thirteen birds were liberated at 1:30. The weather was cloudy with a south-west wind. The first birds made fair time.

Many a Man

Has escaped a nervous breakdown

It is now becoming generally known, By word of mouth from one person to another, That scores of nervous, worried business men Attribute their escape from nervous collapse To the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Business cares and worries of recent years Have made men old before their time. Almost daily you read of prominent men dropping out In the very prime of life. Others have survived, because they learned in time Of a way to restore nerve force to the body. As a result weak, halting vital organs Have again assumed their natural functions. Rest and sleep have become possible, And mind and body have been restored to normal. If you find yourself slipping Ask your friends about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. In almost every family there is some one Who has profited by use of this modern restorative.

Enters Vancouver Baseball League

BELLINGHAM, April 17 (AP).—The Model Truck baseball team became a two-league aggregation last night when Manager Ralph Wilkie signed with Bob Brown, baseball chieftain of Vancouver, B.C., to enter the local team in the Vancouver Senior League.

Previously the local club had entered the Northwest League and will play its first game in this loop here Sunday against the Gibson Cleaners of Seattle.

Lights are being installed on Batterby Field. The first night game will be early in May.

BILL TO WAIT TILL RECESS IS AT END

Indication that the Government intended to do something to relieve slum conditions was given by Minister of Public Works Hugh Stewart. The Toronto vote should not be shifted to slum clearing, he said, but he advised the House to wait for the legislation to be introduced after the recess dealing with the recommendations of the housing committee.

APPROPRIATIONS PASSED

When the members packed their bags and dashed for their trains, the following appropriations had passed through committee stage: Railway Grade Separation Fund, $1,000,000; Geological Surveys, $1,000,000; Montreal Harbor Improvements, $3,500,000; Quebec Harbor Improvements, $1,250,000; Canals, $750,000; and Western Water Conservation works, $500,000.

The appropriation of $15,000,000 to guarantee railway equipment securities of the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways had not been reached.

Robert Gardiner (U.F.A. Acadia) objected to making grants to harbor commissions under the guise of unemployment relief instead of continuing the businesslike policy of making loans.

The same policy was being followed in this work as in assisting the Western Provinces by grants, said Hon. Alfred Durand, and Mr. Gardiner had never complained of those grants.

Hon. Charles Stewart (Lib., Edmonton West) described the bills as camouflage because all the expenditure involved should have been placed in the estimates instead of in the bill.

Thomas Reid (Lib., New Westminster) charged the Marine Minister with being biased against Western ports after noting the absence of any money for the Fraser River in British Columbia.

Mr. Stewart said appropriations to develop the New Westminster port were contained in the main estimates.

There were three spots in the Fraser River which were not as deep as twenty-five years ago, Mr. Reid retorted. For every dollar spent there, fifty dollars had been spent on the St. Lawrence. Minister of Agriculture Robert Weir said an item of $500,000 will be spent on large water conservation schemes in the West. No definite plans had been drawn, and the final decision will be made by the advisory committee to administer drought relief, which will meet next week.

CIVIC EMPLOYEES TO GET INCREASE

the city nor the merchants will prosper until all do their part. I know for a fact that there are many in commercial business who are waiting for us to take a lead in the matter of increases," Alderman Brown stated. Alderman R. A. C. Dewar seconded the motion, asserting that the cost of living was rapidly rising. The motion passed without dissent.

Aldermen also agreed to increase Mayor David Leeming's salary from $3,900 per annum to $4,000. Alderman Brown said the mayor was putting in more than full time at the position and was worth even more than the increase. Aldermen's allowances will remain at $36 per month.

Mayor Leeming, Alderman Brown and Walter Luney were appointed a special committee to go into individual salary increases for a number of City Hall employees, who were considered to be underpaid. It was moved by Alderman James Adam, and seconded by Alderman Andrew McGavin, that wages of all laborers under control of the council be increased from 48 cents to 50 cents per hour. The motion carried.

THE TEACHERS

"What about the teachers?" asked Alderman Adam.

"That has not been brought forward. They do not come under the original resolution," said the mayor. "Does the increase apply to relief office employees," Alderman Peden wanted to know. The mayor answered that they were not permanent employees. Alderman Peden thought that unfair and claimed they should also be given a 3-per-cent increase. The council finally decided to investigate and determine whether this would be possible.

The special committee on individual increases will also determine possibility of granting the firemen's request for a 6-per-cent salary increase. Mr. MacDonald was instructed by the council to prepare a redraft of the 1935 budget, making allowance for the extra $9,509.96 necessary for increases this year.

The council also determined to investigate and determine whether this would be possible.

W. Garrison, the contractor for the coal company, sustained cuts on the head from flying stones, and four colliery workers were injured, two of whom have gone to hospital. Their names were given as follows: L. Hiney, in hospital with head injuries; C. G. Renashe, in hospital with head injuries; R. Peterson, cuts on head, and T. O'Neill, ribs broken.

No exact list of the damage sustained by the attacking strikers could be ascertained last evening. It was unofficially reported that upwards of a score of men had been hurt in the general melee following the initial attack.

Provincial officials took a serious view of the clash, and waited for confirmation of early reports received here by police wireless from the scene.

A portable radio set was used to link Corbin with outlying communities as the day proceeded. Over this set actual word of the clash first reached Government officials here.

So far there has been no request for intervention by the Provincial Labor Department; though it was believed here that the Dominion fair wage office was again on his way to the area. The reopening of work at the mine precipitated the clash.

Reports from the area said that J. Falkner and John Press, president and secretary, respectively, of the miners' union, were being held by the police.

Dionne Baby Is Confined To Hospital

CALLANDER, Ont., April 17 (CP).—Baby Emilie was confined to the hospital nursery today. Dr. Allan Roy Dafeo said Emilie had shown signs of a "slight cold" and he was taking no chances "with a kind of Spring fever."

He hoped to have her take her airing with the others tomorrow. Adding to the excitement at the hospital, Annette produced her second tooth to pull up on even terms with Yvonne for leadership in teething. Two of the sisters, Emilie and Cecile, remained toothless.

The newly formed Fairfield Junior Dramatic Club will give a concert and one-act play in the schoolroom of the Fairfield United Church at 7:30 o'clock on Friday evening, April 26, in aid of the deficit fund.

Produced under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. J. Barlow, the play promises to be an outstanding success. Its title is "The Little Gardeners," and was written by Miss Eugenie Perry, whose play, "The Brownies and the Pigmy Owl," won first place in the British Columbia Drama Festival.

In addition to the one-act play, a concert of instrumental and vocal solos and dance numbers has been arranged. Tickets are now available.

Two clay courts at the Armadale Tennis Club will be available for play tomorrow, weather permitting. Secretary E. T. Simmons announced yesterday. Anyone wishing to join the club is asked to communicate with the secretary, phone E 8993.

CRICKET TEAM TO MAKE TOUR

Canadian Schools' Eleven Will Play Series of Games in England

TORONTO, April 17 (CP).—A Canadian schools' cricket team, sponsored by the Ontario Cricket Association, will play a series of games in England during July and the latter part of August it was learned here today.

Most Ontario schools, with the exception of Ridley College, will be represented on the touring team. Itinerary of the team has been prepared by Major F. J. Ney, and includes games at Winchester, Uppingham, Rugby, Halesbury, Harrow and Eton.

The Canadian team will be the guests of the Marylebone Cricket Club at Lord's for the Gentlemen vs. Players match, and in addition to Oxford and Cambridge visit, will indulge in sightseeing in London.

Officials of O.C.A. announced arrangements for the visit of a Bermuda cricket team have now been completed and the Canadian itinerary will include matches at Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, St. Catharines, London and either Chatham or Windsor.

DUNBAR NAMED RIFLE PREXY

Veteran Marksman Will Guide Local Association This Coming Season

Brigadier-General J. S. Dunbar, veteran marksman, was elected president of the Victoria and District Military Rifle Association at the annual meeting held recently at the Bay Street Armories. The meeting was largely attended and plans for the forthcoming season were discussed. It was decided to delay the opening of Heals Range for some weeks. Announcement of the exact date will be made public later by officials.

List of officers follow: Major-General E. C. Ashton, honorary president; Brigadier-General J. S. Dunbar, president; Captain D. O. Thomas, vice-president; Bandsman F. Drysdale, secretary-treasurer; Q.M.S. I. W. Wood, Sergeant A. E. Ashe and Sergeant G. S. Carr, executive committee; Hon. J. W. Fordham Johnson, Hon. R. R. Bruce, Colonel S. H. Howe and R. P. Butchart, honorary patrons.

Inter-City Match Carded Tomorrow At Olympic Alleys

The Olympic Alleys will be the scene of another inter-city bowling match tomorrow night. The local Canadian Pacific Express squad will attempt to revenge the defeat they suffered at the hands of the Vancouver Express on the Mainland some weeks ago. Boasting of a well-balanced team of fivepin trundlers, the local challengers were the winners of the C.P.R. League honors and also the handsome Lanigan Trophy.

Signs With Royals

VANCOUVER, April 17 (CP).—Hughie Greer has signed to play for the New Westminster Royals soccer team, probably filling one of the outside wing positions. Greer has been playing for Spencers in the Wednesday League.

TENNIS TOURNAY

VANCOUVER, April 17 (CP).—Dates for the annual Harrison Lake tennis tournament were announced today by E. J. H. Cardinal as set for July 6 and 7.

Soccer Activities

Victoria West first and second division soccer elevens will hold a workout this evening at the Royal Athletic Park at 7 o'clock. All players are requested to attend.

LOCAL DRIVER TO SEE ACTION

Jimmy Laird to Compete at Silver Lake Track, Near Everett, On Sunday

SEATTLE, April 17, (AP).—Jimmy Laird, of Victoria, B.C., one of the most popular drivers on the Silver Lake Track near Everett, last season, will see action there Sunday, Mario Bianchi, Seattle, president of the Pacific Racing Association, announced today.

Bianchi, himself a famous Western dirt track driver of a few years ago, said Laird's entry boosts the opening field to nine, for the 1 P.M. opening of the newly-tilled course. Others are Steve Schlinger and Bob Donaldson, of Tacoma; Earl Brunk, former Montana State champion; Devon Smith and Armand Millman, of Portland; Mel Kenealy, former Pacific Coast champion; Johnnie Campbell and Maurie Mangold.

BAKERS SCORE SURPRISE WIN

Rennie & Taylor Horseshoe Pitchers Beat Victoria West Aggregation—McLeod's Triumph

Two matches were played on Wednesday night in the Greater Victoria Horseshoe Pitching League. Rennie & Taylor pulled a surprise win over Victoria West, 182 to 162. J. Keating was again top individual scorer with 24 ringers; J. Rose, of Victoria West, a close second with 17 ringers.

McLeod's Garage defeated the Naval Veterans "B" 203 to 105. The Veterans were handicapped by the absence of one of their regular players. Captain "Peg" Bennett was top scorer with 10 ringers, which was shared with his teammate, A. D. McLeod, who also had 10 ringers.

TIME WORKS WONDERS

From the wild horses that roamed the prairies, breeders have, by infinitely careful selection over a long period of time, evolved the modern thoroughbred, the perfection of equine beauty.

With the same unwearied care, painstaking selection of materials and skilled experience, Seagram's have produced their famous Rye Whiskies.

After storage in charred oak casks, "Time Works Wonders" and adds that delightful flavor, full body and strength which is the result of careful ageing.

JAMES W. MARSHALL, WHO MADE THE GREATEST DISCOVERY OF GOLD IN THE WORLD, IN CALIFORNIA IN 1849, AND GEN. JOHN A. SUTTER, BUILDER AND OWNER OF AN EMPIRE IN CALIFORNIA DURING THAT TIME, WERE REDUCED TO POVERTY WHEN GOLD DIGGERS PREEMPTED THE LAND, VIRTUALLY DISPOSSESSING THE PIONEERS.

HIGHLIGHTS OF NEWS IN PICTURES

H.R.H. PRINCE OF WALES WATCHES RUNNING OF GRAND NATIONAL

His hat tipped over his eyes and looking both interested and a trifle uncomfortable, the Prince of Wales is shown among the crowd at Aintree (1) as he waits for the horses to get under way in the Grand National and (2) as the horses race the course. Reynoldstown, Blue Prince and Thomond II finished first, second and third, and Golden Miller, the favorite, lost his rider at the first jump.

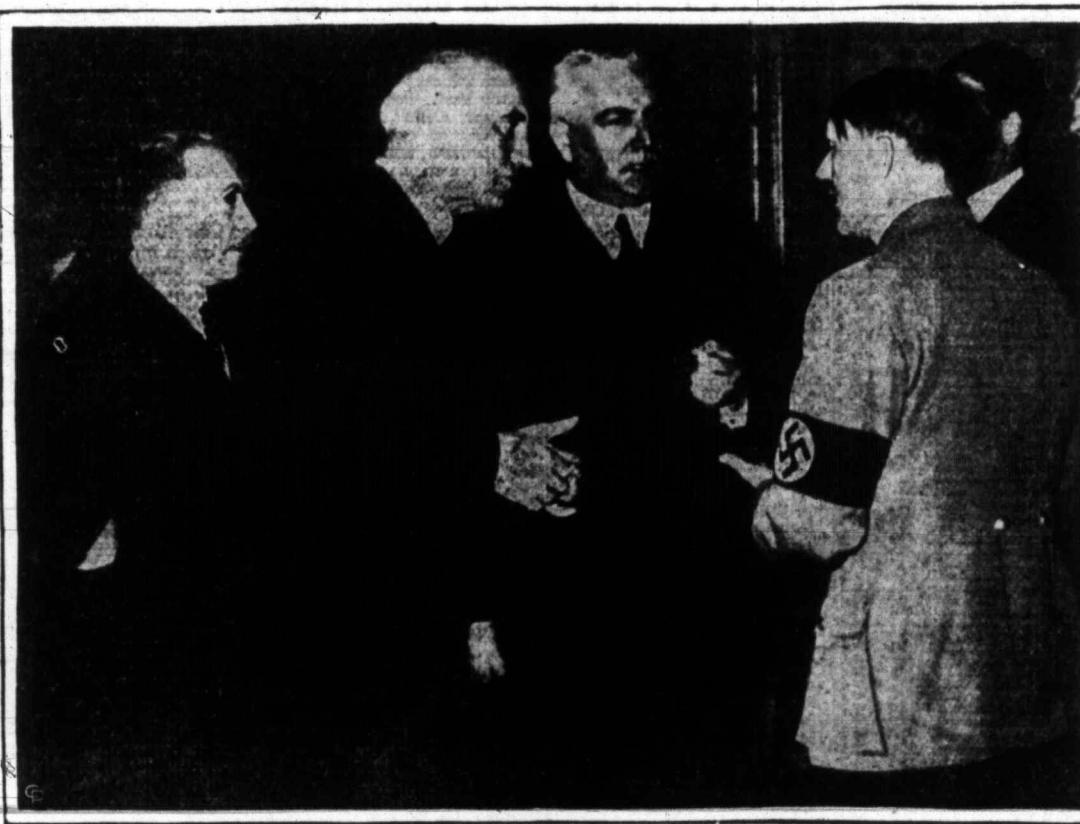

CROWN PRINCE AT EXERCISES

GIVE AQUATIC DISPLAY

These girls at the exclusive Flintridge School for Girls at Pasadena were snapped when about to take part in an aquatic exhibition, Spring having asserted itself in a most temperate manner.

DIPLOMATS IN SERIOUS CONVERSATION

INVENTION FAILURE-FATAL

Floyd Davis, Detroit parachute jumper, invented a new glider device he called the "bat wing." These pictures tell the story. The top one shows the invention, in the center he is seen with his mother and father before the take-off and in the lower his fatal landing when the invention failed to work and his parachute became tangled and would not open.

BRITAIN INCREASES DEFENCES

Great Britain has increased her appropriations for new equipment for her army and navy. Here are shown the latest type of observation plane returning to H.M.S. Eagle, a double-barreled anti-aircraft gun on the Eagle, and outfits that protect soldiers from gas and flame attacks.

SHIPS OF AIR IN HARBOR

The top photograph shows a fleet of airplanes at Cameron Bay, in the North-West Territories. They are used to transport men and freight to that thriving mining community, shown below on the shores of Great Bear Lake. Operators are awaiting the Spring thaw, when renewed activity is expected, although plane service has been maintained steadily all winter.

POLAND'S DICTATOR

Marshal Josef Pilsudski, in a series of swift moves, recently was inaugurated as virtual dictator over Poland. A new constitution was adopted and the Cabinet stripped of its power.

JACKIE COOGAN GROWS UP

Jackie Coogan, who will be twenty-one in October, recently was just "The Kid" again for a few months during a visit to Charlie Chaplin's studio in Hollywood. Jackie and Chaplin are shown dressed as they were during the filming of "The Kid" fifteen years ago, only Jackie's clothes are a bit larger now.

Close Softer at New York Mart

NEW YORK, April 17 (AP).—Selling of rail stocks and bonds finally got on the speculative nerves today and all sections of the stock list dipped in the late trading.

The periodic nervousness over the carrier situation came to the fore again as the Chicago & Northwestern announced its intention of postponing payment of the interest, due May 1, on its 4 1/2 per cent convertible bonds. The road's president announced it was his opinion the interest would be paid within the allotted time.

Fractional losses were the rule among leading equities at the close.

Canadian stocks losing a point or so included: Dominion Stores, Nickel, Noranda, Distillers, Seagrams and Imperial Oil. C.P.R. and Dome Mines were slightly higher. Sales aggregated only $55,540 shares. Industrials and rails gave more ground than utilities. U.S. Smelting, a leader in the advance of silver shares, declined 3 1/2 points to 106 3/4, while American Smelting and Cerro de Pasco lost about a point each.

A fresh sinking spell in railroad issues gave the bond market another shock today. Six separate issues of North Western bonds were hammered down 2 to 3 1/2 points. Other carrier issues also dipped.

The industrial division firmed.

In the foreign department, Italian bonds firmed.

Leading Stocks at Eastern Exchanges
Show Small Losses

MONTREAL, April 17 (CP).—Interest continued slack on the Montreal Stock Exchange today and as a result price changes were confined to minor fractional amounts. Volume totaled 12,000 shares.

Power issues were again irregular. Strength was noted in textiles. Celanese common advanced 1/2 at 21 1/2 and the preferred shares a point at 106. Bruck Silk was up half a point at 16.

Consolidated Smelters and Nickel were both subjected to profit-taking, the former losing 2 1/2 at 140 and the latter 2 points at 43. Steel of Canada declined 2 points at 43, and Sherwin Williams preferred, 3 at 105.

TORONTO EXCHANGE
TORONTO, April 17 (CP).—Pre-holiday selling softened the price level on the Toronto industrial share market today. Thirty-one stocks closed lower and twenty-two higher. Nickel closed 3 1/4 down at 26. Ford lost 1/8 to 27 3/4. Smelters lost 3 points at 139 1/2. Braden gained 3/8 to 9 1/8. C.P.R. added 1/8. The liquor shares were lower, reflecting the weak condition of the New York liquor listings. Walkers common dropped 3/4.

A drop of 2 points was boarded for Bell Telephone, but otherwise the utilities lacked interest.

Narrow gains and losses appeared in the food group.

MARTS TO CLOSE
ON GOOD FRIDAY

(By the Canadian Press)

Stock exchanges in Montreal and Toronto will close for two days during the Easter holidays, while the Winnipeg Grain Exchange will close only on Good Friday. The stock markets will be closed on that day and on Easter Monday, but will have the usual half-session on Saturday.

UNITED STATES MARKETS

NEW YORK, April 17 (AP).—Customary observance of Good Friday will be marked by a general suspension of business on security and commodity exchanges in the United States. The banks will remain open.

While the New York Stock Exchange and other security markets will be open on Saturday, the leading commodity exchanges will remain closed until Monday. The local foreign exchange market will function on Friday and Saturday.

HUSSAR—THE CONNOISSEUR'S DELIGHT

Hussar is the delight of the connoisseur of words. Here is not a prosaic combination of prefix, root and suffix—commonplace components of so large a section of our lexicon.

Rather is Hussar pervaded by the initial and final of the alphabet.

Fifteenth Century, when Matthias I became King of Hungary. Desiring to strengthen his cavalry, this sovereign decreed that, under a proper system of selection, one out of every twenty families must furnish the state a soldier.

This soldier was called, in Hungarian, a hussar, from the Hungarian huzar, meaning twenty. Originally, therefore, the hussar (hussar) was a member of the national Hungarian cavalry; eventually, however, the term was extended to take in a soldier in the cavalry of any European army.

LONDON—Fashion for bridge playing with dinner is the latest attraction for a West End cabaret.

The word had its origin in the

What Today Means*"ARIES"

If April 18 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., from 3 to 5 p.m., and from 8 to 10 p.m. The danger periods are from 9 to 11 a.m., from 5 to 7 p.m., and from 10 p.m. until midnight.

No matter how much self control may be required to keep you from finding fault with anyone on this date, you will be wise not to express adverse thoughts aloud. Maintaining a tolerant attitude towards those with whom you are thrown in close contact will prevent possibly a clash of desires diametrically opposite to each other. A spirit of give and take will prove most helpful in business transactions. In cases of dispute, arbitration should be resorted to before any drastic action is taken. Sometime a poor compromise is much better than a lawsuit, no matter how poor it may seem. Last minute arrangements are likely to cause complications where social entertainment is being arranged, so it will be good judgment to attend to all details in plenty of time to prevent any slip up. Married and engaged couples, as well as those entertaining hopes for an engagement ring, should be very careful to keep careful watch over their tempers on this date.

If a woman, and April 18 is your birthday, do not be too ready to believe everything you hear, especially if it is of a gossiping nature. You should have a great deal of dramatic ability. Avoid giving way to impulses of being emotional if you wish to be popular. Your ability to fascinate men should assure you of being able to make a good matrimonial match with very happy results. The probability of wealth coming your way is likely. Avoid being reckless with money, regardless of how much you may eventually have, and above all things do not spend more than you can afford. Debts can cause you not only a great deal of worry, but trouble as well, so try not to contract them.

Peter Makes a Surprising Discovery

—By THORNTON W. BURGESS

When Peter Rabbit got back to the place where he had first discovered Buster Bear, he found that he could see nothing except a great mass of fur. Peter stayed there just long enough to peek and then in a sudden panic of fear ran back the way he had come. Then he sat still for a long time listening. There was no sound, so once again Peter grew bold. He began to creep around underneath the brush to reach the other side, hoping that he could get a better view of Buster Bear.

It took Peter a long time to get around there because, you know, after each step he stopped to listen and to work up his courage. In some places it was easy going, but in others he had to crawl under tree trunks and broken limbs. But Peter can get through very small places, and after a while he reached the place he had started for.

Holding his breath he peeped out from under the trunk of a fallen tree. There, just in front of him,

At the Discovery Peter Was So Frightened That He Started to Run Away

lay Buster Bear. Buster was in a kind of little cave made by the great pile of brush. Peter could see the place where Buster had crawled in. Underneath Buster was a fine bed of leaves. They looked very much as if they must have been brought there. Peter wondered if Buster had brought them there. As a matter of fact Buster had, for Buster is one who believes in being comfortable. It was quite warm and cozy underneath that great pile of brush. Peter noticed that right away.

For a long time he sat and stared at Buster. Buster didn't move. Not so much as one of Buster's toes twitched. He didn't move any more than if he were dead. Peter began to wonder if it might be that Buster was dead. The longer he sat there watching the more it seemed as if Buster must be dead. The thought that he might be dead made Peter grow bolder. He crept all around Buster. Quietly by accident he touched one of Buster's feet. Still Buster didn't move. That made it seem all the more as if Buster must be dead.

But by and by Peter discovered something that made him scurry back under the brush for safety. He discovered that Buster was breathing. Buster was asleep. At this discovery Peter was so frightened that he started to run away, but he didn't reach the outside edge of the brush pile before his dreadfully curious got the better of him. After a while he crept back, and there sat and watched for a long time. Then quite without knowing just why it came over Peter what it all meant, Buster Bear was in that queer sleep which lasts all winter, the same kind of queer sleep that Johnny Chuck goes into in the Fall and from which he doesn't waken until Spring.

"I do believe," thought Peter, that Buster Bear has spent the Winter here instead of in that ledge of rocks where he spent last Winter. This is his bedroom, and I've discovered it all myself.

Pat Petherbridge Still Leads
 —Duncan Announces Two Candidates

"Pat" Petherbridge still led the May Queen contestants when votes were counted at the close of office hours yesterday. She has 11,000 votes, while the runners-up have 10,000 votes, having increased their standing by 1,000 votes.

Trustee Percy George, chairman of the May Queen contest committee, stated yesterday that the proceeds from the contest were to be spent entirely in Victoria, and that any surplus above expenses would be used to assist other departments of the celebration.

Frank Bickford, manager of the campaign, was in Duncan on Tuesday, and, with his wife, was the guest at the Rotary Club luncheon, where he gave a talk on the May 24 celebration. Duncan has announced its two candidates for the Queen of the Sweet Pea Show. The winner of this contest will become a candidate in the Victoria race for May Queen, thus increasing the candidates to eighteen.

THE STANDINGS

The standing of the seventeen competitors now in the field is as follows:

"Pat" Petherbridge, Home Gas, 11,000.

 Betty Cosh, Avalon Beauty Parlor, 2,000.

"Have you ever run over anybody?" asked the boy of the taxi driver.
 "No," replied the man, "but I once ran over myself."
 "How could that be?" asked the boy.
 "Well," replied the man, "I once asked a boy to go across the road for some petrol and, as he wouldn't do it, I just ran over myself."

Any SKIN TROUBLES In Your Home?

If so do not neglect them, however slight and unsuspected they might be! Unless attended to right away, that rough patch or persistent irritation, may easily develop into eczema or other serious disease that may be difficult to eradicate.

ECZEMA ON HAND.—Mrs. J. Marr, 320 Atlas Avenue, Toronto, Ont., writes: "I suffered with eczema nearly five months, tried many different ointments in that time, as well as doctor's treatment without any result. I finally tried Zam-Buk which cleared up the trouble in less than a week. After this experience we will never be without Zam-Buk in the home."

BURNS & CUTS.—Mr. Charles M. Dunham, Lynden, Ont., writes as follows: "Shortly after receiving my sample of Zam-Buk I had occasion to use it on a burn, and it seemed that in no time the pain had entirely disappeared and there was not the slightest sign of a scar after the burn had healed, which was in a few days time. Since obtaining such good results from your ointment, I have never been without having a box handy, and the slightest cut or burn doesn't escape Zam-Buk."

ZAM-BUK OINTMENT is invaluable for itching, inflamed, and diseased conditions of the skin, while its swift anesthetic healing makes it ideal first-aid dressing for burns, scalds, cuts, etc. Zam-Buk is also a soothing remedy for piles.
